NOTE.

The Latin Calendar, or Ordo recitandi, is prefixed to those copies of the Directory which are prepared for the Clergy. The copies for the Laity have the Ordo, for Sundays and Holydays, in English ; but in all other respects the two books are the same. The Ordo in Latin is also sold separately.

The net price of the Directory is 1s. 6d. ; of the separate Ordo, 6d., interleaved 9d. ; of the Ordo and Directory (i.e. the Directory with interleaved Ordo prefixed to it), 2s.

The Catholic Directory, now in its seventy-sixth year of publication, was preceded early in the 18th century by the Ordo recitandi Officii Divini, &c. In 1782 were added to the Ordo the conditions for gaining the eight Plenary Indulgences ; in 1787 an Obituary of Clergy and Laity ; and in 1791 a notice of schools.

In 1793 was issued, by the publishers of the Ordo, the Laity's Directory for Church Service, &c., which, besides directions in English for the Divine Office and the Holy Mass, contained a list of Chapels in and near London. The two publications were continued for nearly fifty years, the Laity's Directory increasing from time to time in the amount of its information.

In 1838 appeared for the first time the Catholic Directory, &c. After a year the Laity's Directory was discontinued ; and in 1840 the Catholic Directory, together with the Ordo, was published 'permissu superiorum,' that is, in respect of the Ordo and of the official parts of the Directory, with Episcopal sanction.

Each sheet of the Directory contains, as far as possible, the latest information down to the time of its going to press.

For latest changes made known to the Editor, see page vi.

PREFACE

THE CATHOLIC DIRECTORY, ECCLESIASTICAL REGISTER, AND ALMANAC, published with the sanction of the Archbishops and Bishops of England and Wales, appears annually in December.

The same care has again this year been bestowed upon the list of English-speaking Confessors abroad. The list of all the English-speaking Bishops of the world is retained, together with the other additions of 1912. While the Editor has to regret that the years of birth and ordination do not yet appear in the alphabetical list of priests, he is able to chronicle other improvements.

For the benefit of those who are not resident in London, a map of the County has been introduced, with all the public Churches marked in their correct positions. The English Ecclesiastical Ordo has been further perfected; and in the General Almanac care has been taken to introduce saints who have especial interest for the inhabitants of their islands.

The addresses of the 28 Cardinals "in Curia," are now given for the first time.

Attention is also called to the Instruction for the making of Church Vestments, whic follow those for the Construction of Altars.

In regard to the statistics, it has bee found possible to obtain fuller returns fro the English dioceses, and though ther is room for greater completeness, it will a once be seen that the effort begun las year has already led to satisfactory results though it is apparent that some of th figures published are of little use fo practical purposes, on account of lacuna in the case of some of the dioceses.

Further it should be noted that a com parison of the different columns of th Recapitulation for England and Wales wil at once reveal that some of the figures give for the Catholic population of the dioceses are very inaccurate.

Great pains have been taken, in con junction with the 1911 Census, to obtain accurate statistics of the Catholic population of the British Empire. If the Directory had seen no other improvements this year, this chapter alone would, we presume to say, ensure it an added welcome in every Catholic home.

1.—Communications for the Editor should be addressed to him at Archbishop's House, Westminster, London, S.W., before October 20th. The name of diocese and the number of page of the current issue of Directory should always be given. Changes of names and other slight changes after that date, if made known to him before November 15th, will be inserted as far as may be possible.

2.—All communications respecting the Notices in Part IV, or the trade Advertisements, should be addressed, not to the Editor, but to the Publishers, Messrs. BURNS & OATES, 28 Orchard Street, London, W. ; and whatever is intended for insertion in those parts of the Directory should be sent to them before October 20th.

In the notices of services many abbreviations are used, of which an explanatory table is given on page 121.

N.B. — Communications respecting the Ordo recitandi should be sent to "the Compiler of the Ordo, care of the Editor of The Catholic Directory."

A Priest's Invention.

The "A.D." (Abbé Daney)

FIRE EXTINGUISHER & FIREPROOFER

is the invention of Abbé D. Daney, Parish Priest of Toctoucau, near Bordeaux, and the merits of his invention have been officially recognised by the FRENCH GOVERNMENT.

A Fire Brigade Commander says it is

"The Best in Existence."

IT IS THE ESSENCE OF SIMPLICITY,

One Movement of a Lever Controlling Everything.

The liquid used is HARMLESS TO HUMAN LIFE, NON-INJURIOUS TO FABRICS, AND RENDERS FIREPROOF everything with which it comes in contact. It is PARTICULARLY EFFECTIVE WITH PETROL AND CELLULOID.

Tested by THE BRITISH FIRE PREVENTION COMMITTEE.

ECCLESIASTICAL CALENDAR FOR THE DIOCESES OF ENGLAND AND WALES.

EXPLANATORY INTRODUCTION.

THE Ecclesiastical Year, with respect to the Sundays and Movable Feasts, begins with Advent.

The words Double, Semi-double, and Simple, show the degrees of solemnity with which the Offices of the Church are celebrated. The order is as follows : double of the first class, double of the second class, double major, double, semi-double, and simple. When the office is double, an entire Anthem is said or sung before and after each Psalm ; when semi-double, only a word or two are said or sung before the Psalm. A simple has only three lessons at Matins. A feria is a week-day for which no festival is appointed. Some Festivals have an Octave, or succession of eight days, on which the Office and Mass of the Feast are said, or commemoration of them is made.

The Roman Missal, or Mass-Book.

The Prayers, and portions of the Holy Scripture, of which the Mass is composed, are partly always the same, and partly different every day. Those that are invariable are in the Ordinary of the Mass, at the beginning of the Missal : the parts that are changeable, or proper, form the subsequent contents. The proper Mass of the day will be found from the following Calendar.

If a Feast falls on a Sunday, its Mass is said only when it is a double of the first or second class or a Feast of Our Lord. But Sundays of the first class are never superseded ; and Sundays of the second class are superseded only by doubles of the first class. The Gospels for Sundays thus superseded are said at the end of Mass ; and a commemoration of the Sunday, by its Collect, Secret, and Postcommunion, is made after the Collect, &c., of the Festival.

The Vesper-Book.

Our Father and Hail Mary being said, the Priest intones the Deus in adjutorium ; and when five Psalms, with their Antiphons, have been sung, the Priest sings the Little Chapter : then are sung the Hymn, with its Versicle and Response, and the Magnificat, with its Antiphon, followed by the Prayers and Commemorations appointed for the day.

Every Double and Semi-double has first and second Vespers : the first on the eve, the second on the Festival.

Ornaments, Vestments, and Ceremonies of the Mass.

The external rites of the Holy Mass chiefly commemorate and represent the death and passion of our Saviour.

The Altar represents Mount Calvary ; and also the table on which our Blessed Saviour celebrated His last supper. The Crucifix reminds us of His passion and death.

The Candles are lighted from a motive of honour and respect. They represent the light of faith and the fervour of charity, and are also expressive of spiritual life and joy.

The Amice, which the Priest puts over his head, and then round his neck, signifies the cloth with which the Jews blindfolded our Saviour in mockery. The Alb represents the white garment which Herod put upon our Lord. The Maniple on the Priest's left arm, the Stole, and the Girdle, represent the cords and fetters with which our Lord was bound. The Chasuble, or upper garment, represents the purple garment and the heavy cross.

Colours of the Vestments. White is used on Festivals of our Lord, the Blessed Virgin, and of saints who are not martyrs. Red, on Pentecost, on the Finding and Exaltation of the Cross, and on Feasts of Apostles and Martyrs. Purple, or Violet, on the Sundays and Ferias of Advent, during the penitential time from Septuagesima Sunday till Easter, and on certain Vigils and other days. Green, on Sundays and Ferias, from the Octave of the Epiphany to Septuagesima Sunday, and from Trinity Sunday to Advent exclusively ; but in Paschal time white is used. Black, on Good Friday ; and in Masses of Requiem for the dead.

The Gloria in excelsis is said on Sundays (except from Septuagesima to Palm Sunday, and Sundays in Advent), on Feasts (except Holy Innocents), and daily during Paschal Time. The Creed is said on Sundays and on many Feast days.

Three prayers are generally said except on doubles ; ordinarily the 2nd is of the Saints, and the 3rd at the priest's choice : but in Lent the 3rd is for the living and the dead.

The Preface of the Most Holy Trinity is said on all Sundays, unless when otherwise directed.

When the Suffrage, or prayer for the intercession of the Saints, is said a commemoration is made of St. GEORGE, Patron of England and in certain Dioceses of the respective Patrons likewise.

ABBREVIATIONS.

H.O., Holiday of Obligation ; F.D., Feast of Devotion ; Ap., Apostle ; M., Martyr ; Bp., Bishop ; C., Confessor ; Pp., Pope ; V., Virgin ; W., Widow ; Ind., Plenary Indulgence ; gr. d., Greater double ; d., Double ; sd., Semi-double ; Oct., Octave ; Vesp., Vespers ; Vesp. ch. foll., Vespers from chapter of next day's Feast ; c. or com., commemoration.

An asterisk (*) marks the days on which the Rubrics allow of the celebration of Masses for the Dead in black vestments.

† signifies that in the Hymn Iste Confessor the words Supremos laudis honores are substituted for beatas seandere sedes.

‡ marks the days on which Masses of the Feria or Vigil may be said, having in regard to Indulgences the same privileges as Masses of Requiem. Such Masses are said in violet vestments, and a collect for the dead is inserted among the prescribed commemorations.

NOTE.—The Solemn celebration of the Title Feasts of many Churches, by permission of the Holy See, may be transferred by the Bishop to the Sunday within the Octave of the Festival.

DEDICATION OF ENGLAND

TO THE

BLESSED VIRGIN MARY, MOTHER OF GOD,

AND TO SAINT PETER.

On June 29, 1893, in obedience to the earnest wish and exhortation of Pope Leo XIII., England and Wales were solemnly dedicated and consecrated, by the Cardinal Archbishop and the Bishops, to the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of God, and to St. Peter, Prince of the Apostles; and the Archbishop and Bishops decreed that this dedication and consecration should be renewed annually in every public Church—to the Blessed Virgin on Rosary Sunday, and to St. Peter on the Sunday within the Octave of the Feast of SS. Peter and Paul.

I. ANNUAL DEDICATION OF ENGLAND TO THE MOTHER OF GOD.

To be recited on Rosary Sunday.

O Immaculate Virgin, Mother of our Lord Jesus Christ, Mother of Grace, and Queen of the Kingdom of Thy Son! Humbly kneeling before Thee, we offer Thee this country in which we live. It once was Thine. Before it was robbed of the Holy Faith, all its children were Thy children, and Thou wast honoured throughout its length and breadth as its Protectress and its Queen. Again do we consecrate it to Thee; again do we dedicate it as Thy own Dowry. We offer our own hearts, that their love and service may ever grow and increase. We offer all our brethren, those multitudes who know Thee so little, or know Thee not at all. May Thy prayer bring back the country's ancient Faith! May Thy intercession lead us to a closer union with Thy Divine Son! We consecrate ourselves to Him through Thee. Obtain for us, and for England Thy Dowry, every grace and blessing. O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary!

V. Pray for us, O holy Mother of God.

R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray.

Holy Mother of God, Virgin ever blest, O Mary Immaculate, pray for us, intercede for us, disdain not to help us. For we are confident, and know for certain, that Thou canst obtain all Thou willest from Thy Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, God Almighty, the King of Ages, Who liveth with the Father and the Holy Ghost, for ever and ever. Amen.

II. ANNUAL DEDICATION OF ENGLAND TO ST. PETER.

To be recited on the Sunday within the Octave of the Feast of SS. Peter and Paul.

O Blessed Prince of Apostles, Vicar of Christ, Shepherd of the whole Flock, Rock on whom the Church is built! We thank the Prince of Pastors, Who, in ages of Faith, did bind this country so sweetly and strongly to thee, and to that Holy See of Rome from which her conversion came. We praise and bless our Lord for those steadfast confessors who laid down their lives for thy honour and prerogative, in the hour when schism and heresy broke upon the land. We desire to revive the zeal, the devotion, and the love of ancient days. We consecrate our country, as far as in us lies, fervently and lovingly to thee. We offer thee our homage. We renew our loyalty to the Pontiff, thy Successor, who now fills the Apostolic See. Do thou confirm and strengthen, by thy powerful intercession, the faith of the Pastors and people who invoke thee. Save us from apostacy, from disunion, from religious indifference, and from the losses to which ignorance and temptation expose our little flock.

O most sincere and most humble Penitent, obtain for us tears of true repentence for our sins, and a strong personal love for our Divine Master. O Key-bearer of the Heavenly Kingdom, open to us the gate of Heaven, that we may enter into the joy of the King of Glory. Remember this Realm of England, which grew in grace and unity under thy blessed apostolic influence for nigh a thousand years. Pray to Jesus that all may see the light, and be brought back to thy Fold, which is the One Fold of Christ. Amen.

V. Thou art Peter.

R. And upon this Rock I will build my Church.

Let us pray.

Raise us up, we beseech Thee, O Lord, by the apostolic might of Thy Blessed Apostle Peter; that the weaker we are in ourselves, the more powerful may be the assistance whereby we are strengthened through his intercession; that thus, ever fortified by the protection of Thine Apostle, we may never yield to sin nor be overwhelmed by adversity. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

FASTING AND ABSTINENCE DAYS.

1. Fasting Days in Great Britain: on which flesh-meat is forbidden, unless a dispensation be granted ; and only one meal, with a collation, is allowed to those who are bound to fast—All the days of Lent, except Sundays ; the Ember days ; the Vigils or Eves of Whit-Sunday, of SS. Peter and Paul, of the Assumption, of All Saints, of St. Andrew (in Scotland only), and of Christmas Day ; and the Wednesdays and Fridays of Advent. Fasting is dispensed on a day of obligation. See Indult, page 5.

2. Abstinence Days in Great Britain: on which flesh-meat is forbidden—They are, besides the Fasting days above mentioned, the Sundays in Lent, unless a dispensation be granted. and all Fridays in the year, except Days of Obligation. In Scotland there has been granted a relaxation of the law of abstinence, except during Lent, on Ember Saturdays, and on such Vigils as immediately precede or follow a Friday or other day of abstinence.

MARRIAGES.

In consequence of the Papal Decree 'Ne temere' of August 2, 1907 which came into force at Easter 1908, marriages between Catholics, or between Catholics and non-Catholics, must be celebrated before a Bishop or Priest duly authorised for the celebration thereof. Such marriages, if they are not so celebrated, are indeed, for all the civil effects and purposes of marriage, valid and binding legal contracts under the civil law, if the conditions and requirements of the civil marriage-law are fulfilled ; but they are null and void before God, and the parties are not, in the sight of God, husband and wife.

In all civil contracts, the State has power to determine under what conditions they shall be civilly valid. But the marriage of baptised persons is not a merely civil contract ; it is a sacred contract, raised by our Lord Jesus Christ to the dignity of a Sacrament. Therefore, the power of determining the conditions under which the marriage of baptised persons shall be valid before God, and binding in conscience, exists by Divine authority in the Church of Christ and nowhere else.

The solemn celebration of marriages is, by a general law of the Church, forbidden from Ash Wednesday till after Low Sunday, and from the 1st Sunday in Advent till the day after the Epiphany. In some places, all marriages are forbidden during those times.

Mixed Marriages.

A "mixed marriage" (that is, a marriage between a Catholic and one who, though baptised, does not profess the Catholic Faith) may not take place without a dispensation ; and the dispensation cannot lawfully be given unless for a sufficiently grave reason, and subject to the following conditions : 1. That all children that may be born of the marriage shall be baptized, and brought up, in the Catholic Faith. 2. That the Catholic party shall have full liberty for the practice of the Catholic religion. 3. That the Catholic party shall endeavour, especially by prayer and the example of a good life, to convert the other to the Catholic Faith. 4. That no religious marriage ceremony shall take place except in the Catholic Church.

LENTEN INDULT.—Continued.

6. Suet is allowed only when meat is allowed.

Milk, butter, cheese, dripping and lard, when allowed at collation may be taken thereat in small quantities only, by way of condiment.

On Sundays, flesh-meat, eggs, cheese, milk, and butter, may be taken, not only at the chief meal but also at other times.

For those who, though not bound to fast, are bound to abstain.

The kinds of food which are allowed at their principal meal to those who are bound to fast, are allowed at all times to those who are not so bound.

On those days, Sundays included, on which flesh-meat is taken, fish is not allowed at the same meal. This applies to all fasting days throughout the year; and it is binding even upon those who are not bound to fast.

Lenten Alms.—Those who use these dispensations are exhorted to put alms into the "Lenten Alms" box, which is usually placed in a conspicuous position in the Churches and Chapels.

CALENDAR PECULIARITIES.—Some facts about our calendar are well worth noting. Thus, the month of January always begins the same day of the week as the month of October. The same is true with regard to April and July, September, and December. Again, February, March, and November also begin with the same day of the week. This, however, is true only in normal years of 365 days. A century can never begin on Wednesday, Friday, or Saturday. Furthermore, the ordinary year ends on the same day of the week as it begins.

§ II

I. ACTS OF PARLIAMENT

AFFECTING CATHOLIC ADULTS AND CHILDREN IN WORKHOUSES AND PAUPER SCHOOLS.

I. From the Act 25 and 26 Victoria, cap. 43 (July 17, 1862), entitled "An Act to provide for the Education and Maintenance of Pauper Children in certain Schools and Institutions."

1. The Guardians of any Parish or Union may send any poor child to any School certified as hereinafter mentioned, and supported wholly or partially by voluntary subscriptions, the managers of which shall be willing to receive such child, and may pay out of the funds in their possession the expenses incurred in the maintenance, clothing, and education of such child therein, during the time such child shall remain at such School (not exceeding the total sum which would have been charged for the maintenance of such child if relieved in the Workhouse during the same period), and in the conveyance of such child to and from the same, and, in the case of death, the expenses of his or her burial.

[Section 2 provides for the examination of the School by the Poor-Law for Local Government) Board previous to its being certified. Section 3 provides for the removal of a child by order of the said Board, in the case of any grievance. Section 4 provides for the visitation and inspection of the School, at all reasonable times, by the said Board and by the Guardians.]

5. The Guardians may at any time, at their discretion, and shall, upon the requisition of the Managers of the School, or upon the withdrawal of the Certificate, as herein provided, cause any such child to be removed from any such School, and brought back to their Parish or Union.

6. No child shall be sent to such School unless he or she be an orphan or deserted by his or her parents or surviving parent, or be one whose parents or surviving parent shall consent to the sending of such child to the said School.

7. Nothing herein contained shall enable the Guardians to keep any child in any School against the will of such child, if above the age of fourteen, or of the parents or surviving parent of such child, whatever be the age of the child.

9. No child shall be sent under this Act to any School which is conducted on the principles of a religious denomination to which the child does not belong.

10. The word "School" [in this Act] shall extend to any Institution established for the instruction of the blind, deaf, dumb, lame, deformed or idiotic persons, but shall not apply to any certified Reformatory School.

11. This Act shall not extend to Scotland or Ireland.

II. From the Act 29 and 30 Vict., cap. 112 [August 10, 1866] entitled "An Act to amend . . . and to make other Amendments in the Laws relating to the Relief of the Poor."

14. If the parent, step-parent, nearest adult relative, or next of kin of any child not belonging to the Established Church, relieved in a Workhouse or in any District School, or, in case there should be no parent, step-parent, nearest adult relative, or next of kin, then the god-parent of such child, make application to the said Board (i.e., the Poor-Law (now the Local Government) Board] on such behalf, the Board may, if they think fit, order that such child shall be sent to some school established for the reception, maintenance, and education of children of the religion to which such child shall be proved to belong, and duly certified by the Poor-Law Board under the statute of the 25th and 26th Victoria, chapter 43, and the Guardians of the Union or Parish to which such child shall be chargeable shall, according to the terms of such order, cause the child to be conveyed to such school, and pay the cost and charges of the maintenance, lodging, clothing, and education of the said child therein, and all the provisions of the statute shall thenceforth apply to the said child.

III. From the Act 31 and 32 Vict., cap. 122 (July 31, 1868) entitled "An Act to make further Amendments in the Laws for the Relief of the Poor in England and Wales."

16. The officer for the time being acting as the Master of a Workhouse, or as the Master or Superintendent of a District or other Pauper School, shall keep a register of the religious creed of the Pauper inmates of such Workhouse or School separate from all other registers, in such form and with such particulars as shall be prescribed by the Poor-Law Board by an order under their seal, and shall, as regards every inmate of such Workhouse or School at the date to be fixed by such order, and subsequently upon the admission of every inmate therein, make due inquiry into the religious creeds of such inmate, and enter such religious creed in such register.

17. In regard to any child in the Workhouse or School under the age of twelve years, whether either of its parents be in the Workhouse or not, or whether it be an orphan or deserted child, the Master or Superintendent shall enter in such register, as the religious creed of such child, the religious creed of the father, if the Master or Superintendent know or can ascertain the same by reasonable inquiry; or, if the same cannot be so ascertained, the creed of the mother of such child, if the same be known to the said Master or Superintendent, or can be by him in like manner ascertained; and the creed of an illegitimate child under the said age shall be deemed to be that of its mother, where that can be ascertained.

18. If any question shall arise as to the correctness of any entry in such register, the Poor-Law Board may, if they think fit, inquire into the circumstances of the case, and determine such question by directing such entry to remain or to be amended, according to their judgment.

19. Every Minister of any denomination officiating in the church, chapel, or other registered place of religious worship of such denomination which shall be nearest to any Workhouse or School, or any ratepayer of any parish in the Union, shall be allowed to inspect the register which contains the entry of the religious creed of the inmates at any time of any day, except Sunday, between the hours of ten before noon and four after noon.

20. Such Minister may, in accordance with such regulations as the said Board shall approve of or by their order prescribe, visit and instruct any inmate of such Workhouse or School entered in such register as belonging to the same religious creed as such Minister belongs to, unless such inmate, being above the age of fourteen, and after having been visited at least once by such Minister shall object to be instructed by him.

21. Every inmate for whom a religious service according to his own creed shall not be provided in the Workhouse shall be permitted, subject to regulations to be approved of or ordered by the Poor-Law Board, to attend, at such times as the said Board shall allow, some place of worship of his own denomination within a convenient distance of the said Workhouse, if there be such in the opinion of the Board, provided that the Guardians may, for abuse of such permission previously granted, or on some other special ground, refuse permission to any particular inmate, and shall in such case cause an entry of such refusal and the grounds thereof to be made in their minutes.

22. No child, being an inmate of a Workhouse or such School as aforesaid, who shall be regularly visited by a Minister of his own religious creed for the purpose of religious instruction, shall, if the parents or surviving parent of such child, or, in case of orphans or deserted children if such Minister make request in writing to that effect, be instructed in any other religious creed, or be required or permitted to attend the service of any other religious creed, than that entered in such register as aforesaid, except any child above the age of twelve years who shall desire to receive instruction in some other creed, or to attend the service of any other religious creed, and who shall be considered by the Poor-Law Board to be competent to exercise a judgment upon the subject.

23. The Act of the twenty-fifth and twenty-sixth Victoria, chapter forty-three, and section fourteen of the Poor-Law Amendment Act of 1866, shall apply to illegitimate as well as legitimate children; and with regard to illegitimate children, the consent of the mother, if she has the care, custody, or possession of the child, shall be sufficient for the purposes of those Acts; and in case of a deserted child or an orphan child on behalf of whom no relative, next of kin, step-parent, or god-parent shall make application, the Poor-Law Board may exercise the power conferred upon them by section fourteen of the said Act of 1866, upon being satisfied that there is reasonable ground for their doing so.

42. The Guardians of any Union or Parish may, with the approval of the Poor-Law Board, send any poor deaf and dumb or blind child to any School fitted for the reception of such child, though such School shall not have been certified under the provisions of the Act of the twenty-fifth and twenty-sixth years of Victoria, chapter forty-three.

Allowance to be made for Children in Poor-Law Schools.

The Local Government Board have sanctioned, as a reasonable rate of payment for children sent to Poor-Law Schools, the sum of seven shillings per week, and sixpence a quarter for dentistry.

IV. OTHER ACTS CONCERNING POOR CHILDREN.

1. The "Elementary Education (Blind and Deaf Children) Act, 1893," concerning the obligation of parents, and the duty of school authorities, as to blind and deaf children, or children of imperfect sight and hearing; the provisions as to their religious instruction; and the certifying of Schools for them.

2. The "Elementary Education (Defective and Epileptic Children) Act 1899," for the same purpose, with regard to such children, as that of the Act of 1893 with regard to children that are blind or deaf.

3. The "Poor-Law Act, 1899," concerning the control of Guardians of a Poor-Law Union over orphans and children of persons unfit to have control of them, and also over children with their consent adopted by anyone.

II. THE SENDING OR TRANSFER OF CHILDREN

TO CATHOLIC CERTIFIED POOR-LAW, REFORMATORY, AND INDUSTRIAL SCHOOLS.

TRANSFER TO POOR-LAW SCHOOLS.

For instructions as to the transfer to Poor-Law Schools, see the Catholic Directory of years previous to 1905 ; or apply to the Secretary of the Westminster Diocesan Education Fund (T. W. Hunter, Esq., M.A., Archbishop's House, Westminster), who will be pleased to give information.

TRANSFER TO REFORMATORY AND INDUSTRIAL SCHOOLS.

I. Reformatory and Industrial Schools.

By the Children Act, 1908, Section 66, it is enacted—

1. That the court or justice, in determining the certified school to which the youthful offender or child is to be sent, shall endeavour to ascertain the religious persuasion to which the youthful offender or child belongs, and the detention order shall, where practicable, specify the religious persuasion to which the offender or child appears to belong, and a school conducted in accordance with that persuasion shall, where practicable, be selected.

2. A Minister of the religious persuasion specified in the order as that to which a youthful offender or child sent to a certified school appears to belong may visit the offender or child at the school on such days, at such times, and on such conditions, as may be fixed by the Secretary of State for the purpose of affording him religious assistance and also for the purpose of instructing him in the principles of his religion.

3. Where an order has been made for sending a youthful offender or child to a certified school which is not conducted in accordance with the religious persuasion to which the offender belongs, the parent, legal guardian, nearest adult relative, or person entitled to the custody of the offender or child may apply—

(a) if the detention order was made by a petty sessional court, to a petty sessional court acting in and for the place in and for which the court which made the order acted; and

(b) in any other case, to the Secretary of State, to remove or send the offender or child to a certified school conducted in accordance with the offender's or child's religious persuasion, and the court or Secretary of State shall, on proof of the offender's or child's religious persuasion, comply with the request of the applicant :

Provided that—

(i) the application must be made before the offender or child has been sent to a certified school, or within thirty days after his arrival at the school ; and

(ii) the applicant must show to the satisfaction of the court or Secretary of State that the managers of the school named by him are willing to receive the offender or child :

(iii) nothing in this section shall be construed as preventing any such person as aforesaid from making an application to the Secretary of State after the expiration of the said period of thirty days to exercise the powers of transfer conferred on him by the other provisions of this Act.

III. GUARDIANSHIP AND CUSTODY OF INFANTS

Act 49 and 50 Victoria, cap. 27 (June 25, 1886), entitled "An Act to amend the Law relating to the Guardianship and Custody of Infants."

1. This Act may be cited as the Guardianship of Infants Act, 1886.

2. On the death of the father of an infant, and in case the father shall have died prior to the passing of this Act then from and after the passing of this Act, the mother if surviving shall be the Guardian of such infant, either alone when no guardian has been appointed by the father, or jointly with any guardian appointed by the father. When no guardian has been appointed by the father, or if the guardian or guardians appointed by the father is or are dead, or refuses or refuse to act. the Court may, if it shall think fit, from time to time appoint a guardian or guardians to act jointly with the mother.

3. (1) The mother of any infant may by deed or will appoint any person or persons to be guardian or guardians of such infant after the death of herself and the father of such infant (if such infant be then unmarried), and where guardians are appointed by both parents they shall act jointly. (2) The mother of any infant may by deed or will provisionally nominate some fit person or persons to act as guardian or guardians of such infant after her death jointly with the father of such infant, and the Court, after her death. if it be shown to the satisfaction of the Court that the father is for any reason unfitted to be the sole guardian of his children, may confirm the appointment of such guardian or guardians, who shall thereupon be authorized and empowered so to act as aforesaid, or make such other order in respect of the guardianship as the Court shall think right. (3) In the event of guardians being unable to agree upon a question affecting the welfare of an infant, any of them may apply to the Court for its direction, and the Court may make such order or orders regarding the matters in difference as it shall think proper.

4. Every guardian in England and Ireland under this Act shall have all such powers over the estate and the person, or over the estate (as the case may be) of an infant as any guardian appointed by will or otherwise now has in England under the Act twelve Charles the Second, chapter twenty-four, or in Ireland under the Act of the Irish Parliament, fourteen and fifteen Charles the Second, chapter nineteen or otherwise.

5. The Court may, upon the application of the mother of any infant (who may apply without next friend), make such order as it may think fit regarding the custody of such infant and the right of access thereto of either parent, having regard to the welfare of the infant, and to the conduct of the parents, and to the wishes as well of the mother as of the father, and may alter, vary, or discharge such order on the application of either parent or, after the death of either parent, of any guardian under this Act, and in every case may make such order respecting the costs of the mother and the liability of the father for the same or otherwise as to costs as it may think just.

6. In England and Ireland the High Court of Justice, in any division thereof, and in Scotland either division of the Court of Session, may, in their discretion, on being satisfied that it is for the welfare of the infant, remove from his office any testamentary guardian, or any guardian appointed or acting by virtue of this Act, and may also, if they shall deem it to be for the welfare of the infant, appoint another guardian in place of the guardian so removed.

7. In any case where a decree for judicial separation, or a decree either nisi or absolute for divorce, shall be pronounced, the Court pronouncing such decree may thereby declare the parent by reason of whose misconduct such decree is made to be a person unfit to have the custody of the children (if any) of the marriage; and, in such case, the parent so declared to be unfit shall not, upon the death of the other parent, be entitled as of right to the custody or guardianship of such children.

8. In the application of this Act to Scotland the word guardian shall mean tutor, and the word infant shall mean pupil.

9. In the construction of this Act the expression "the Court" shall mean—

In England the High Court of Justice or the county court of the district in which the respondent or respondents or any of them may reside.
In Ireland the High Court of Justice or the county court of the district in which the respondent or respondents or any of them may reside.
In Scotland the Court of Session or the sheriff court within whose jurisdiction the respondent or respondents or any of them may reside.

Any application under this act to the High Court of Justice in England or to the High Court of Justice in Ireland shall be made to the Chancery Division of the said Courts respectively in such manner as may be prescribed by Rules of Court.

10. In England and Ireland when any application has been made under this Act to a county court the High Court of Justice shall, at the instance of any party to such application, order such application to be removed to the High Court of Justice and there proceeded with before a judge of the Chancery Division, on such terms as to costs as it may think proper.

11. Rules for regulating the practice and procedure in any proceedings under this Act, and the forms in such proceedings, may from time to time be made—

(a) so far as respects the High Court of Justice or His Majesty's Court of Appeal in England or Ireland by Rules of Court;
(b) so far as respects the Court of Session in Scotland by Act of Sederunt; and
(c) so far as respects any county court in England or Ireland and the Sheriff Court in Scotland in like manner as rules and orders respecting those courts can respectively for the time being be made.

Nothing in this Act contained shall restrict or affect the jurisdiction of the High Court of Justice in England, and of the High Court of Justice in Ireland, or of any division of the said Courts, and of the Court of Session in Scotland, to appoint or remove Guardians, or (in the case of Scotland) tutors of factors loco tutoris or otherwise in respect of infants.

V. BURIAL LAWS AMENDMENT ACT.

I. By the Burial Laws Amendment Act of September 7th, 1880, which does not apply to Scotland or Ireland, a deceased person may be buried in the churchyard or graveyard of any parish, or ecclesiastical district or place, without the burial service of the Church of England. For such burial, notice in writing, endorsed on the outside 'Notice of Burial,' must be given, at such time and to such person as the burial authority* may direct (Burial Act, 1900), in the form or to the effect of the following Schedule (A) :

'Notice of Burial.'

'I.....of..... being the relative (or friend, or legal representative, as the case may be, describing the relation, if a relative), having the charge (or being responsible for) the burial of A. B., of ....., who died at....., in the parish of....., on the .....day of....., do hereby give you notice that it is intended by me that the body of the said A. B. shall be buried within the (here describe the churchyard or graveyard in which the body is to be buried), on the .....day of....., at the hour of....., without the performance in the manner prescribed by law of the service for the burial of the dead according to the rites of the Church of England, and I give this notice pursuant to the "Burial Laws Amendment Act, 1880."

(Signature, address, and date).

'To the Rector (or, as the case may be) of.....'

II. If objection is not made to the day or hour mentioned in the Notice, the burial will take place at the time therein specified. If, for just cause, as provided in the Act, objection is made to the time, the burial will take place at whatever other time may be appointed or mutually arranged.

III. By clause 6 of the Act, the burial may take place, at the option of the person having the charge of or being responsible for the same, 'either without any religious service, or with such Christian and orderly religious service at the grave as such person shall think fit.'

IV. When the burial has taken place, on the day thereof or the next day, the person having the charge of or being responsible for the same shall send to the rector, vicar, incumbent, or officiating minister (or, where there is a burial board, to the keeper of the register of burials) a certificate in the form or to the effect of the following Schedule (B) :

'I.....of....., the person having the charge of (or being responsible for) the burial of the deceased, do hereby certify that, on the .....day of....., A. B., of....., aged....., was buried in the churchyard (or graveyard) of the parish (or district) of .....'

(Signature, address, and date.)

'To the Rector (or, as the case may be) of..... '

---

* By 'burial authority' is meant any burial board, any council committee, or other local authority having the powers and duties of a burial board, and any local authority maintaining a cemetery under the Public Healths (Interments) Act, 1879, or under any local Act.

PART II.

§ I.

THE CATHOLIC HIERARCHY.

The Catholic Hierarchy, or the governing body of the Holy Catholic Church, consists of :—1. His Holiness the Sovereign Pontiff, assisted by the Sacred College of Cardinals, and by the Sacred Congregations (of which the Cardinals are the chief members), the Tribunals, and the Offices, of the Roman Curia (see page 30); 2. the Patriarchs, Archbishops and Bishops ; 3. the Apostolic Delegates, Vicars, and Prefects ; and 4. certain Abbots and Prelates.

I. GENERAL SUMMARY.

HIS HOLINESS THE POPE,

BISHOP OF ROME AND VICAR OF JESUS CHRIST,
SUCCESSOR OF ST. PETER PRINCE OF THE APOSTLES,
SUPREME PONTIFF OF THE UNIVERSAL CHURCH,
PATRIARCH OF THE WEST, PRIMATE OF ITALY,
ARCHBISHOP AND METROPOLITAN OF THE ROMAN PROVINCE, SOVEREIGN OF THE TEMPORAL DOMINIONS OF THE HOLY ROMAN CHURCH.

SACRED COLLEGE OF CARDINALS,

Consisting, when it is complete, of six Cardinal Bishops, fifty Cardinal Priests, and fourteen Cardinal Deacons. (See page 28.)

PATRIARCHATES.

There are ten Patriarchates, with fourteen Patriarchal Sees: eight of the Latin Rite, and six of the Oriental Rite.

The greater, or more ancient Patriarchates, are those of : Alexandria, Latin and Coptic ; Antioch, with four Patriarchal Sees, Latin, Greco-Melchite, Maronite and Syriac ; Constantinople, Latin ; and Jerusalem, Latin. The less are those of : Babylon, Chaldaic ; Cilicia, Armenian ; the East Indies, Latin ; Lisbon, Latin ; Venice, Latin ; and the West Indies, Latin.

This summary of Residential Sees of Archbishops and Bishops, amounting with the 14 Patriarchal Sees to 1053, is for the most part taken from the official Gerarchia Cattolica, published at Rome in 1912.

Besides the Residential Sees, there are many Titular Sees, formerly (until March 3, 1882) called Sees 'in partibus infidelium,' that is, Sees in infidel regions, the Archbishops and Bishops of which only take their title from them without being bound to residence. These Sees are, for the most part, assigned to Archbishops and Bishops appointed, either to Apostolic Delegations, Vicariates, or Prefectures; or to the office of Coadjutor, Auxiliary, or Administrator of a Diocese.—The number of Titular Sees is 610. Many are vacant.

II. THE SOVEREIGN PONTIFF.

HIS HOLINESS POPE PIUS X. (JOSEPH SARTO), the 258th Roman Pontiff, was born at Riese, in the Province of Venice, June 2, 1835; made Bishop of Mantua in 1884, Cardinal in 1893, Patriarch of Venice in 1893; elected Pope, Aug. 4, crowned Aug. 9, 1903.

LIST OF THE ROMAN PONTIFFS,

Chiefly as given on the walls of St. Paul's Basilica at Rome.
(The date of accession of some of the earlier Popes is uncertain.)

ST. PETER, PRINCE OF THE APOSTLES.

Having received from our Lord Jesus Christ the Supreme Pontificate, to be transmitted to his Successors, established his See at Antioch; and thence transferred it, in 42, to Rome, where he suffered martyrdom, June 29, 67.

III. THE SACRED COLLEGE OF CARDINALS.

The Cardinals, as the advisers and assistants of the Sovereign Pontiff, are the supreme council or senate of the Church. On the death of the Pontiff, they elect his successor.

There are three orders of Cardinals, Bishops, Priests, and Deacons. These orders are distinct from those of the Hierarchy: with very few exceptions, the Cardinal Priests are archbishops or bishops; and the Cardinal Deacons are generally priests.

The Sacred College, when complete, consists of 70 members: 6 Cardinal Bishops, whose Dioceses are the six 'Suburban Sees,' near Rome; 50 Cardinal Priests, who take their title from the 'Titular Churches,' to which they are appointed, with jurisdiction and right to a throne, &c., therein; and 14 Cardinal Deacons, who are appointed to other churches called 'Deaconries.'

The first Cardinal Bishop is Dean, the first of the Priests is First Priest, and the first of the Deacons is First Deacon, of the Sacred College. The Dean has the right of consecrating, and the First Deacon the right of proclaiming and crowning, a new Pope.

On the death of the Pontiff the Cardinal Camerlengo has the administration of the affairs of the Holy See.

The 'creation' of a Cardinal sometimes precedes, even by several years, its 'publication' or proclamation. The Cardinal is then said to be 'reserved in petto;' and, when proclaimed, he takes precedence according to date of creation. At the Consistory in 1911, a Cardinal was reserved in petto.

II. VICARS-APOSTOLIC IN SCOTLAND,
PREVIOUS TO THE HIERARCHY (1878).

The last surviving prelate of the ancient Hierarchy was JAMES BETOUN, Abp. of Glasgow, who went into exile, July 19, 1560; and, though restored to the temporalities of his See by King James VI., Feb. 26, 1598, he never returned to his native land, but died at Paris, April 23, 1603, æt. 79, and was buried there.

For some time afterwards the authority of the English Archpriests extended over Scotland ; and when the first Vicar-Apostolic of England was nominated, in 1623, Scotland still remained under English jurisdiction. But in the same year Pope Gregory XV. directed the Vicar-Apostolic to cease from exercising jurisdiction in Scotland ; and in 1629 Urban VIII. granted faculties to F. Wil- liam Ogilvie, as Prefect of the Mission. He died about 1631, after which Bp. Magennis, of Down and Connor, was placed over the Mission. In 1634 Propaganda decreed the restoration of the ancient bishopric of the Isles; which never was carried out. In Nov., 1635, F. Cornelius Ward, O.S.F., arrived as Prefect; and, on his retirement from the Scottish Mission in 1640, he was succeeded by F. Patrick Hogarty, O.S.F., who, after five years' imprisonment, was forced to return to Ireland, in August, 1648.

In 1653 the Scottish clergy were placed under Prefects-Apostolic by Pope Innocent X.

IV. ENGLISH MARTYRS BEATIFIED OR VENERABLE

WHO SUFFERED DEATH IN ENGLAND, FOR THE CATHOLIC FAITH AND FOR THE PRIMACY OF THE ROMAN PONTIFF, FROM 1535 TO 1681.

POPE LEO XIII., December, 1886, beatified fifty-four Martyrs, of whom 24 belonged to the Secular Clergy, 24 to the Regular Clergy and six were Laymen. On 13th May, 1895, a supplementary decree beatified nine others, seven Benedictines and two of the laity. The feast of these 63 Martyrs is 4th May. Their names are given in previous editions of the CATHOLIC DIRECTORY. On Dec. 9th, 1886, was signed the Commission for the Introduction of the Cause of Beatification, or Declaration of Martyrdom, of 253 Venerable Servants of God, who suffered death in England for the Faith from 1535 to 1681. 156 Martyrs were trained at Douay College, 40 at the English College, Rome, 23 at Valladolid, 16 at St. Omers, 7 at Seville. Besides the above there are 286 less-known sufferers, on whose causes what with dearth of information, what with slow procedure at Rome, no pronouncement has yet been made. They are technically called Dilati (44) and Prætermissi (242).

V. DECEASED CLERGY ASSOCIATION

FOR ENGLAND AND WALES.

This Association is divided into two parts; of which the Northern Division contains seven Dioceses, and the Southern nine. In each Diocese there is a Registrar, appointed to keep a list of the Members in his Diocese, and to send out notices of deaths.

Bishops, whether Secular or Regular, and Secular Priests, become Members of the Association by inscribing their names, either personally or by proxy, upon the list kept by the Registrar of their Diocese. They thereby bind themselves for life to offer a Mass for every deceased Member belonging to the Division, Northern or Southern, to which they themselves belong.

Priests who are permanently transferred from one Division to another, are required to transfer their names to a list of that Division. Those who cease to belong to the jurisdiction of the Bishops in England and Wales lose the benefit of membership. But Military Chaplains retain their right of membership even if they die out of the Division to which they belong; and Priests of the English Colleges abroad, and those who are attached to the Papal Court, may have the benefit of membership by having their names inscribed on the Register of their Diocese.

The Masses of the Association are 'privileged.'

According to a Papal Rescript of April 13, 1869, no Priest can become a Member after three years from the day of his entrance into his Diocese. This restriction, withdrawn by a Rescript of July 5, 1885, was restored by a Rescript of August 15, 1886.

The CATHOLIC EDUCATION COUNCIL, which has taken the place of the Catholic School Committee that existed from 1847, and has also taken over the work of the Secondary Education Council, formed in 1904, was constituted by the Bishops of Great Britain in 1905 as a central body for all Catholic Primary and Secondary Education Purposes ; and it is recognised by the Government as representing the Catholics of Great Britain in matters of Catholic Education.

The Council consists of 95 Members, about half clerical and half lay : of whom 12 are nominated by the Bishops of England and Wales ; 48 are representatives of the 16 Dioceses of England and Wales, one being nominated by the Bishop, and two by the Catholic Schools Association of each Diocese ; 18 are representatives of the six Dioceses of Scotland ; 12 are nominated by the Conference of the Catholic Colleges of England ; and 5 co-opted as representing Secondary Day Schools. The 12 Members nominated by the Bishops of England and Wales, and the 12 nominated by the Conference of Catholic Colleges, are chosen with special reference to Secondary Education.

There is an Executive Committee, consisting of the Chairman of the Council, and of 35 of its Members : of whom 16 are chosen, one by the representatives of each Diocese of England and Wales ; six by the representatives of the Scotch Dioceses ; eight by the representatives of Secondary Education, that is, by the 12 nominees of the Bishops and the 12 nominees of the Conference of Catholic Colleges. The five members coöpted as above, make up the total of 35.

The Council is appointed triennially. Its Annual Meeting takes place in London in Low Week. Its Executive Committee and Sub-Committees meet as often as may be required.

IX. WESTMINSTER CATHEDRAL.

The First Stone of this Byzantine Cathedral, designed by Mr John F. Bentley (who died March 2, 1902), was laid June 29, 1895.

From Ascension Day, 1902, the Hall adjoining the Cathedral was used daily for High Mass, and for the chanting or recital of the Divine Office; and on Lady Day, 1903, one of the Chapels of the Cathedral (the future Lady Chapel) was screened off from the main building, to be used temporarily as a parochial or mission chapel.

The Cathedral was first opened temporarily, for the Requiem and funeral services of its great Founder, Cardinal Vaughan, who died June 19, 1903; and though still unfinished, it was, without any special opening ceremony, again opened for daily use at Christmas, 1903. It was consecrated on June 28th, 1910, by the present Cardinal Archbishop, assisted by nearly all the Bishops of England and Wales.

The Cathedral, with a nave 60ft. wide and 112ft. high, is one of the largest Churches in the world. The total internal length is 344ft., and the total internal width 144ft. On each side of the nave is a processional aisle, spacious chapels, and a Transept.

The Sanctuary, nearly the full width of the nave, is raised 4½ft. above the nave floor. Beyond the Sanctuary is the apsidal choir, 13ft. above the nave floor: underneath the choir is a crypt. On one side of the Sanctuary is the Chapel of the Blessed Sacrament, and on the other side, the Chapel of Our Lady. These Chapels are approached from the Transepts and separated from the Sanctuary by narrow rails, over which are the organ galleries. Galleries also extend over the aisles in the nave, including the narthex at the west end.

The Baptistery occupies the south-west corner of the building: it is approached from the narthex and the Chapel of SS. Gregory and Augustine. Near the north-west corner of the building rises S. Edward's Tower to a sheer height of 273ft.: the cross on the top makes the total height 283ft. A beautifully toned Angelus bell, presented in 1910 by the Duchess of Norfolk, hangs in the campanile, at a height of nearly 200ft. from the ground.

The Sacristies and the buildings connected with them are important features in the plan of the Cathedral.

The nave is covered with three concrete domes, 60ft. in diameter, that rest on arches 90ft. above the floor.

Devoid of extraneous roofing, the spherical outlines of these domes express to the passer-by the expansiveness of the interior.

The dome over the Sanctuary is pierced with windows that form a corona of light over the high altar, in striking contrast to the semi-gloom of the nave vaulting.

The marble decoration to the lower part of the Sanctuary, including the Baldacchino and the arcades of the organ galleries, is completed; yet these parts of the decoration cannot be seen to advantage until the surrounding walls and the Apse are brightened with marble and mosaic.

In some of the Chapels the marble decoration is quite finished: these are the Chapel of the Blessed Sacrament, the Chapel of Our Lady, the Chapel of the Holy Souls, the Chapel of SS. Gregory and Augustine, the Chapel of the Sacred Heart, and Cardinal Vaughan's Chantry, or S. Thomas's Chapel. The altars in these and the other Chapels were consecrated in 1910. In the Chapel of S. Edmund, under the Sanctuary, are the tombs of Cardinal Wiseman and Cardinal Manning. The fine recumbent figure in bronze of Cardinal Manning was modelled by the late John Adams-Acton, who died in 1910. The mosaic panel over S. Edmund's Altar was designed by the late W. Christian Symons, who died in 1911.

By the same gifted artist are the mosaics in the Holy Souls' Chapel, and the panel in the north Transept representing Blessed Joan of Arc.

In the Lady Chapel, the mosaic panel over the altar was designed by R. Anning Bell.

Since the last issue of THE DIRECTORY, the electric light pendants in the nave have been paid for by generous donors, and the Cathedral is now well lighted.

Many bronze and silver fittings, such as grilles, pendants, and lamps, also crucifixes and candlesticks have been specially made for the various chapels, and others are designed, waiting for their donors.

The expenditure, including payments for the Cathedral Hall and the Cloisters had amounted (in October, 1912) to £264,898 14s. 8d. There is still money remaining for a few special purposes, including two of the Chapels; but money is urgently needed for the Cathedral's upkeep and maintenance.

Contributions for these purposes, or for the completion of the Cathedral and of its Chapels (with their marble and mosaic decoration), will be gratefully received by the Cardinal Archbishop, or by the Diocesan Treasurer, Archbishop's House, Westminster, London, S.W.

FORM OF WILL IN FAVOUR OF WESTMINSTER CATHEDRAL.

I bequeath to His Eminence, Francis, Cardinal Bourne, Roman Catholic Archbishop of Westminster or other the person or persons for the time being, who shall discharge the administrative duties of Ordinary of the Diocese of Westminster, the sum of £ free of duty, to be applied by him or them in his or their absolute discretion, for the general purposes of the Westminster Cathedral.

X. CONSTRUCTION OF AN ALTAR

IN ACCORDANCE WITH LITURGICAL REQUIREMENTS.

As to the altar itself, it is laid down that if it is to be consecrated as a fixed altar, the table must be one solid piece of stone. The support of the table must consist, at least at the four corners, of stone reaching from the predella to the table. The length of a high altar from Epistle to Gospel corner should be eight feet or more. The length of other altars must be at least five feet. The breadth of any altar should be at the least one foot eight inches in front of the tabernacle ; and the height, three feet three inches, or three feet six inches at most. The breadth of the predella from altar to steps should be at the least three feet ten inches. The part on which the priest stands when saying Mass should be of wood unless it is to be covered by a carpet. The number of altar steps should be uneven. A good step is one foot three inches in breadth, and five-and-a-half inches in height.

1.—The throne of exposition consists essentially of a small canopy with a dorsal and base, specially designed to receive the monstrance during Solemn Exposition of the Most Holy Sacrament. By the nature of its function, it is therefore a temporary structure. If the whole altar is covered by a canopy or baldacchino (as it is the mind of the Church that the high altar at least and the altar where the Blessed Sacrament is reserved should be so covered), there is no need of another or smaller canopy for exposition. All that is necessary in this case is to provide a suitable and honourable position and background for the monstrance. The correct position for the throne of exposition is on or above the altar. It may, however, be erected behind the altar, provided it is not at a distance from the altar ; for altar and throne should be united to form one whole.

2.—A permanent throne for exposition may not be erected on the tabernacle. The throne may be placed on the tabernacle for the period of exposition, but must be removed after exposition.

3.—The altar cross may never be placed in the throne of exposition, nor in any structure specially designed for exposition. Its proper place is in a line with, and on the same level as, the altar candles. But if room cannot be found for it behind the tabernacle on the altar or gradine, it may lawfully be placed on the tabernacle.

4.—Thus throne and cross may be placed on the tabernacle, but not both at the same time.

XI. DIRECTIONS FOR MAKING VESTMENTS AND ALTAR LINEN.

Dimensions, Ornamentation, etc. Amice : length, 31 to 36 in. ; breadth, 23 to 28 in. ; strings, 4 ft. 8 in. A small cross should be worked in the centre, close to top edge. Alb should be made to fit the individual wearer. Lace or embroidery is permitted, but should not be deeper than 18 in. Girdle, about 4 yds. long. Maniple : not longer than 3 ft. 3 in. from end to end, nor broader than $4\frac{3}{4}$ in. ; should bear three crosses : one in middle, and one towards each end. Stole should be about twice the length of the chasuble, and about the same breadth as the maniple, and should bear three crosses in same manner as the maniple. (N.B.—The Broad Stole, or Stolone, should be from 9 in. to 12 in. in breadth, and should not have any crosses on it.) Chasuble (best modern Roman model) : length, 3 ft. 11 in. ; breadth, 2 ft. 7 in. ; across breast, $21\frac{1}{2}$ in. Opening for neck : length, 14 to 16 in. ; breadth at highest point, 6 in. ; at lowest, 3 in. Should be a soft garment, falling in the natural folds of the material. Has a cross on the front and a pillar down the back, 10 to 12 in. broad. Burse : about 12 in. square, and bears a cross in the centre ; covered, back and front, with same material as chasuble ; lined inside with white material ; completely closed on three sides. Chalice Veil : a square of silk sufficiently large to cover the chalice on all sides ; lining, if any, should be very thin ; narrow braid border ; but no cross or ornament is necessary. Pall : $4\frac{1}{2}$ to 6 in. square ; embroidery is only tolerated on the top surface. Purificator : length, 15 to 20 in. ; breadth, 12 in. ; may have small cross worked in centre. Corporal : about 20 in. square ; may have small cross worked in front. Altar Cloths : two under ones cover the table exactly ; top one should fall to the ground on either side, but should not hang over the front edge of altar. Cope, when spread out, forms a semicircle of radius about 5 ft. 3 in. Humeral Veil : length, 8 ft. ; breadth, 3 ft. 3 in. Dalmatic : length, 3 ft. 9 in. ; breadth at shoulders, 2 ft. 2 in. ; at lowest part, 2 ft. 7 in. Sleeves : 14 in. square.

Material. Cope, chasuble, stole, maniple, dalmatic, humeral veil, chalice veil and cover of burse should be made with silk, or with cloth of gold or of silver ; though stuffs of silk interwoven with thread of inferior material are permitted. The lining may be of linen ; or cotton, where silk is not available. Vestments should be soft garments, falling gracefully in the natural folds of the silk ; therefore, stiff material should not be inserted under the lining.

Altar cloth, corporal, pall, purificator, amice and alb must be made of lawn or linen ; lavabo and Communion cloths may be made of linen diaper, white cotton or of any suitable material.

Colour. The liturgical colours are green, purple (rose, only for mid-Advent and mid-Lent Sundays), red, white and black. Cloth of gold may be used for green, red, or white ; cloth of silver, for white. Blue and yellow vestments are forbidden. The lining is usually of the same colour as the vestment ; though yellow may be used for lining white vestments.

APOSTOLIC CONSTITUTION
ON THE NEW ORDERING OF THE ENGLISH HIERARCHY.

PIUS BISHOP,
SERVANT OF THE SERVANTS OF GOD
FOR PERPETUAL REMEMBRANCE.

If any Church in the whole Christian world has earned a special share in the solicitude and helpful forethought of the See Apostolic, it is the Church of the English. Happily developed amid the British race by Saint Eleutherius, and afterwards more happily stablished by Gregory the Great through the work of apostolic men, it gained renown in later days from the vast number of those of its children, who either shone conspicuous for the holiness of their lives, or bravely encountered death for the sake of Christ. With these reflections in mind, We, who, certainly, in affectionate interest for the Church of the English yield to none of our predecessors, seeing that the hierarchy there since its restoration has had but one province, have determined to recast that hierarchy after a better fashion, and, to make such further changes as will tend to promote the greater good of souls and the development of the Catholic religion. We have, that is to say, decreed to create there two new ecclesiastical provinces.

Wherefore by these Our Letters Apostolic, We constitute the two ecclesiastical provinces of Birmingham and Liverpool. Thus there will be henceforward three ecclesiastical provinces in England ; the province of Westminster, with the suffragan churches of Northampton, Nottingham, Portsmouth, and Southwark, as heretofore ; the province of Birmingham, with the suffragan churches of Clifton, Menevia, Newport, Plymouth, and Shrewsbury ; and the province of Liverpool, with the suffragan churches of Hexham and Newcastle, Leeds, Middlesbrough, and Salford. Moreover, for the preservation of unity in government and policy, to the Archbishop of Westminster for the time being are granted certain new distinctions of pre-eminence, comprised under the following three heads :

1. He will be permanent Chairman at the Meetings of the Bishops of all England and Wales, and for this reason it will be for him to summon these Meetings, and to preside over them, according to the rules in force in Italy and elsewhere.

2. He will take rank above the other two Archbishops, and will, throughout all England and Wales, enjoy the privilege of wearing the pallium, of occupying the throne, and of having the Cross borne before him.

3. Lastly, in all dealings with the Supreme Civil Authority he will inhis person represent the entire Episcopate of England and Wales. Always, however, he is to take the opinion of all the Bishops, and to be guided by the votes of the major part of them.

The Archbishops of Birmingham and Liverpool shall enjoy just the same privileges and rights as belong to other Metropolitans throughout the Catholic Church. Moreover as a special favour, and as a greater mark of Our good will, We grant that the Right Reverend Edward Ilsley, heretofore Bishop of Birmingham, and the Right Reverend Thomas Whiteside, heretofore Bishop of Liverpool, shall, in virtue of these Our Letters, whereby new provinces are created, become Archbishops of those same Sees, raised now to metropolitan rank ; and this We grant, waiving the issue of further Letters Apostolic.

To carry all this into effect We depute the Most Reverend Francis Bourne, the present Archbishop of Westminster ; who shall afterwards forward to the Sacred Congregation of the Consistory a written statement witnessing to the discharge of this his duty.

We have reserved to Ourselves the taking of further measures in this matter of the reconstitution of English dioceses, as shall seem opportune, and as experience may suggest and the good of souls require. For the present We deem the enactments contained in these Letters to be such as will suffice to help forward and to extend the cause of Catholicism in England. And We have every good hope that what has hereby been done through the instrumentality of man, God Almighty will perfect and establish ; and that thus England, the glorious foster-mother of Saints, may see renewed in even happier wise the holy examples of a former age.

These things, therefore, We ordain and determine, decreeing that these Our Letters are and shall always be valid and effective, Apostolic Constitutions and Ordinances, general and particular, and all other things whatsoever to the contrary notwithstanding.

Given at St. Peter's in Rome, the twenty-eighth day of October, in the year of Our Lord's Incarnation, one thousand nine hundred and eleven, the ninth of Our Pontificate,

C. Card. De Lai,
Secretary to the Sacred Congregation of the Consistory.

A. Card. Agliardi,
Chancellor of the Holy Roman Church.

Dioceses of England and Wales.

CLERGY, CHURCHES AND CHAPELS, &c.

AND HOURS OF SERVICE.

On the death of the last of the Marian Bishops in the reign of Elizabeth, the Catholic Hierarchy in England became extinct. It was restored Sept. 29, 1850, by Letters Apostolic (Universalis Ecclesiæ) of PIUS IX, when the Metropolitan See was transferred to Westminster. By Letters Apostolic of Oct. 28, 1911, of His Holiness Pius X, the Province of Westminster, which had fifteen Suffragan Sees, was divided up into three Provinces, i e., Westminster, Birmingham, and Liverpool. With WESTMINSTER remain the dioceses of Northampton, Nottingham, Portsmouth, and Southwark. To BIRMINGHAM were assigned the dioceses of Clifton, Newport, Plymouth, Shrewsbury, and Menevia. The remaining Sees of Hexham and Newcastle, Leeds, Middlesbrough, and Salford were assigned to LIVERPOOL.

By an Apostolic Brief (De animarum salute) of March 4, 1895, Wales, except Glamorganshire, was made a Vicariate, with a Bishop as Vicar-Apostolic. The Vicariate was changed into the Diocese of Menevia, May 12, 1898.

ST. GEORGE is Protector of England, ST. DAVID Patron of Wales.

CONSECRATION TO OUR BLESSED LADY AND ST. PETER.

On June 29, 1893, in obedience to the earnest wish and exhortation of Pope Leo XIII, England and Wales were solemnly dedicated and consecrated, by the Cardinal Archbishop and the Bishops, to the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of God, and to St. Peter, Prince of the Apostles; and this dedication and consecration is to be renewed yearly in every public church—to our Blessed Lady on Rosary Sunday, to St. Peter on the Sunday within the octave of June 29.

In the following notices, R denotes that the Church is a Missionary Rectory; † denotes that it is registered for Marriages.

When two dates are given, the first is generally that of the foundation of the Mission; the second is the date of the existing Church or Chapel. Cons. means consecration.

The last Mass on Sundays, and in many Churches on Holidays, is generally a High Mass, or a "Missa Cantata."

The number in square brackets [ ] gives the accommodation of the church.

NOTICE.

The Second Provincial Synod lays down certain rules for deciding when gifts made to priests are intended for their own private use, and when for the benefit of their mission ; but the same rules are not clearly applicable to charitable institutions. In accordance, therefore, with the principles laid down in the Synod for the ease of conscience, all donations, when made to any one in charge of such establishment, shall be considered to be intended for the support and maintenance of such institution, or for the payment of debt, if there be any, unless the donor distinctly declares his donation to be meant for the personal use of those in charge : and whoever receives donations intended for the establishment must without delay pay over such benefactions to the committee or priest in charge, and, in default of such managers, to the Treasurer of the Diocese.

IV. PRIESTS, SECULAR AND REGULAR, OF GREAT BRITAIN.

Names not appearing in the diocesan parts of the Directory need for insertion in this list the sanction of Ecclesiastical or Religious Superiors; and a request for their insertion must be sent to the Editor each year.

Names of some Priests employed or residing abroad, but ecclesiastically connected with Great Britain, are included in this List.

It should be understood that postal addresses are given, and that the post-town is not always that in which the priest is stationed.

The letters after the names of Regulars, etc., denote the Order or Congregation to which they belong.

Assumptionists, A.A.; Augustinians, O.S.A.; Benedictines, O.S.B., Canons Regular of the Lateran, C.R.L.; Carmelites, O.C.D.; Cistercians (Reformed), O.C.R.; Congregation of the Mission, C.M.; Dominicans, O.P.; Franciscans (Capuchins), O.S.F.C.; Franciscans (Minors Conventual), O.M.C.: Franciscans (Friars Minor), O.F.M.; Holy Ghost Fathers, C.S.Sp.; Institute of Charity, Inst. Ch.; Jesuits, S.J.; Josephites, C.J.; Marists, S.M.; Missionaries of the Sacred Heart, M.S.C.; Oblates of Mary Immaculate, O.M.I.; Oblates of St. Charles, O.S.C.; Oblates of St. Francis of Sales, O.S.F.S.; Passionists, C.P.; Pious Society of Missions, P.S.M.; Premonstratensians, C.R.P.; Redemptorists, C.SS.R.; Salesians, S.C.; Servites, O.S.M.; Society of the Divine Pastor, S.D.P.; Society of the Divine Saviour, or Salvatorians, S.D.S.

Mgr. here denotes those who, as Domestic Prelates or Chamberlains of His Holiness, or as Vicars-General, have the title of Monsignore; V.G. denotes Vicars-General; an asterisk * denotes those who are addressed as Right Reverend.

VI. ECCLESIASTICAL TITLES AND MODES OF ADDRESS.

CARDINALS. His Eminence Cardinal ..... If he is also an Archbishop: His Eminence the Cardinal Archbishop of ..... ; or His Eminence Cardinal ....., Archbishop of ..... My Lord Cardinal, or My Lord ; Your Eminence.

ARCHBISHOPS. His Grace the Archbishop of ..... ; or The Most Reverend the Archbishop of ..... My Lord Archbishop, or My Lord ; Your Grace.

BISHOPS. The Lord Bishop of ..... ; or The Right Reverend the Bishop of ..... ; or His Lordship the Bishop of ..... My Lord Bishop, or My Lord ; Your Lordship. In Ireland, Bishops are usually addressed as The Most Reverend.

An Archbishop or Bishop of a Titular See (see note, p. 25) may be addressed, 1. by his title alone, as other Archbishops and Bishops ; or 2. by his Christian name and surname, followed by the title of his See, or of any office, such as Vicar Apostolic, that he holds, as The Most Rev. (or The Right Rev.) A. B., Archbishop (or Bishop, or Vicar Apostolic) of ..... ; or 3. by his surname only, preceded by Archbishop or Bishop, as The Most Rev. Archbishop (or The Right Rev. Bishop) .....

N.B.—The addition of D.D., or the prefixing of Doctor or Dr., to the names of Catholic Archbishops or Bishops, is not necessary, and is not in conformity with the best usage. When an Archbishop or Bishop is mentioned by his surname, it is better to say Archbishop (or Bishop).....than to say Dr...... ; for the latter title is common to Doctors of all kinds, and does not of itself indicate any sacred dignity or office.

Provosts, Canons.—1. The Very Rev. Provost .....(surname). 2. The Very Rev. Canon ..... (surname) ; or (Christian name and surname) The Very Rev. Canon A.B.

Protonotaries Apostolic, Domestic Prelates, Vicars-General, Camerieri segreti and Camerieri d'onore (i.e., Privy Chamberlains and Honorary Chamberlains), of His Holiness the Pope, have the title of Monsignore ; and in Latin they are styled Reverendissimi. Vicars-General and, in England, Protonotaries and Domestic Prelates are addressed as Right Rev., and Camerieri as Very Rev.

Monsignore, when followed by the surname, is usually written and pronounced Monsignor.

Mitred Abbots. The Right Rev. Abbot ..... (surname), Right Rev. Father.

Provincials. The Very Rev. Father ..... (surname) ; or The Very Rev. Father Provincial. Very Rev. Father.

Some others (heads of colleges, &c.) are, at least by courtesy, addressed as Very Reverend ; but no general rule can be given.

The title of Father is very commonly given to Secular Priests, as well as to Priests of Religious Orders and Congregations.

Dean ..... used thus as a prefix is incorrect. There are no Deans, properly so called, in the Catholic Church in England.

COLLEGES AND BOYS' SCHOOLS.

I. UNDER CLERGY OR RELIGIOUS.

See Index, pp. 601, 602.

ARCHDIOCESE OF WESTMINSTER.

ST. EDMUND'S COLLEGE,

Old Hall, Ware.

Established as "Old Hall Green Academy" in 1769.

Reconstituted as St. Edmund's College in 1793.

(Continuation in the London Vicariate of the English College founded by Cardinal Allen at Douay in 1568.)

President—Right Rev. Mgr. CANON WARD.

The College is situated within thirty miles from London, five miles from Ware, on the direct road to Cambridge. The nearest station is Standon, on the G. E. R. Telegrams—Old-hall-green. Telephone—P.O. Puckeridge 4.

The course of studies is adapted for candidates for the priesthood, and for those destined for professional or commercial life. The whole school is examined annually under the direction of the Oxford and Cambridge Schools Examination Board, and the boys are prepared for the examinations for Certificates (Higher and Lower).

At ST. HUGH'S PREPARATORY SCHOOL, adjoining the College, boys are received from the age of seven years.

The College is well situated, on high ground, in an unusually healthy position. There is a tepid swimming bath, a gymnasium, and separate fields for Football and Cricket. The boys of St. Hugh's Preparatory School have their own playing fields, and have the use of the gymnasium and swimming bath at different times from the others.

The infirmary is in a separate wing of the main building, and is under the supervision of a resident trained nurse.

For further particulars, apply to Right Rev. Mgr. Canon Ward, President, as above.

ST. JOSEPH'S COLLEGE FOR FOREIGN MISSIONS,

Mill Hill, Hendon, N.W.

Founded by the late Cardinal Vaughan, with the blessing of the Sovereign Pontiff, and supported by voluntary contributions.

Rector of the College—Very Rev. C. Aherne.

ST. JOSEPH'S SOCIETY FOR FOREIGN MISSIONS, which consists both of clergy and of laity, is under the direction of its Superior-General, the Very Rev. Francis Henry.

Its object is to educate missionaries, for the conversion chiefly of heathen nations. No people in the world have a greater responsibility in this respect than the inhabitants of the United Kingdom, whose vast Empire comprises in population, more than one-fifth of the world.

Conditions of Admission to the College:—Eighteen years of age; unexceptionable testimonials as to solid piety and probable vocation; sufficient education to enable the candidate to begin philosophy; apostolic willingness to devote his whole life to foreign missions, and to accept as from God whatever mission he may be appointed to. He will be provided for in old age or illness.

A preparatory College has been founded at Freshfield, near Liverpool; and there are branch Colleges at Rosendaal, in Holland, and at Brixen, in the Tyrol.

For terms of admission at Mill Hill or Freshfield, application may be made to the Rector, as above; and, for any information, to him, or to the Cardinal Archbishop of Westminster.

Reference may be made, and subscriptions may be sent, to the Cardinal Archbishop of Westminster, the Archbishop of Liverpool, the Bishop of Southwark; or to the Rev. Fathers of the Oratory, London.

Attached to the Society is a Sisterhood, following the Rule of the third Order of St. Francis. They have charge of the domestic arrangements of the Society's Colleges; have Homes for waifs and strays at Patricroft and Blackburn; and some are sent on the Foreign Missions of the Society. Postulants, who are always needed, may apply to the Superior-General, as above.

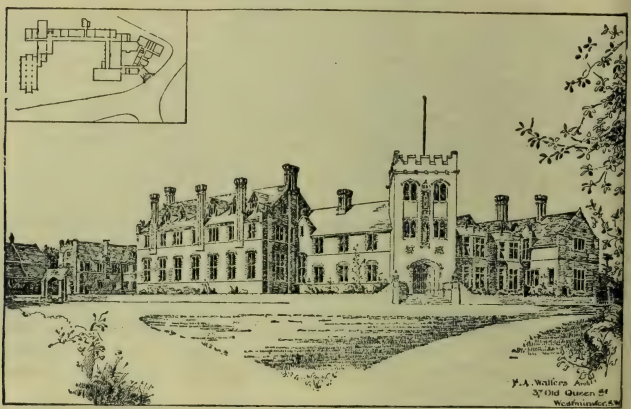
DOUAI ABBEY,

Woolhampton R.S.O., Berkshire.

Midgham Station (G.W.R.), one mile via Reading or Newbury.

Telegraphic Address :—"BENEDICTINES, WOOLHAMPTON."



DOUAI ABBEY was first established in Paris as a Royal Priory in 1611 by the English Benedictine monks as a continuation and revival of the ancient Abbey of Bury-St.-Edmund's. After the French Revolution, the English Benedictines revived St. Edmund's at Douai, in 1818. In 1899 Pope Leo XIII. created it an Abbey.

On March 18th, 1903, the French Government, by the law on Religious Associations, suppressed the Abbey and expelled the Monks and their Students. On September 17th, 1903, the Abbey and Abbey School, through the kindness of the Bishop of Portsmouth, was re-established at Woolhampton.

The Abbey is 46 miles from London (Paddington), on the Newbury and Devizes branch of the Great Western Railway, and stands in one of the most healthy and picturesque parts of Berkshire. The College has been recently entirely rebuilt, and is replete with every modern convenience.

Lay-Professors, Graduates of the Universities, assist the Fathers in the work of classical and mathematical studies.

Students are prepared for the Oxford and Cambridge Higher and Lower Certificates, and entrance to the Universities and Professions.

Further particulars and prospectus will be supplied on application to the Right Rev. Abbot, or the Very Rev. Prior.

SALESIAN SCHOOL,

Honours	13
Distinctions	10
Passes	76

The School has been approved by the University of Oxford and the College of Perceptors as a centre for the Local Exams.

Pension for Students over twelve .. ... £18 per year.
Pension for Students under twelve ... ... £16 per year.

Students may enter at any time. For prospectus, apply to the V. Rev. A. Sutherland, S.C. Director.

Bishop Cotter at the distribution of prizes, Sept. 29th., 1912 :

"I thoroughly approve of the religious training given by the Salesian Fathers, who educate young men with a sound and entire knowledge of their holy religion, thus making them capable of standing alone among the scattered units which make up the Church in this diocese. I regard this school as a distinct asset to the diocese of Portsmouth. Honours were obtained in the Public Examinations, not only in one or two classes, but throughout all the classes of the School. Consequently this school has already taken its place along with the older institutions in the front rank of educational establishments in the country."

Brief of His Holiness PIUS P.P. P.

Ad perpetuam rei memoriam.

The pious and fruitful Institute of the Little Brothers of Mary, approved of by this Holy See, having spread over the whole world in a very short space of time, and being now augmented by a large number of Brothers and young aspirants, teaches the elements of the Christian Faith to a very large number of children.

With this object in view the Brothers of this Congregation have founded in France, in Britain, in Belgium, in Spain, in Italy, in both North and South America, in Africa, and even on the shores of distant Australia, pious Associations known under the name of Juniorates to train young persons, who, under God's call, desire to enter into the religious state. Our Predecessor, Pope Leo XIII, in his Apostolic Letters of 24th December, 1880, and of 21st May, 1886, both sealed with the Fisherman's ring, enriched with special favours this undertaking of the establishment of Juniorates. But now Our dear son, Stratonique, Superior General of the Little Brothers of Mary, has begged of Us to confirm these favours in perpetuity. We, who have nothing more at heart than to see the progressive development of a work which deserves well of religion, We have thought it well to grant, willingly and gladly, this pious request. And truly, in these times, so threatening for the Church, when the enemies of the Catholic name lay innumerable snares to turn away youth from the path of virtue We are pleased to protect and encourage this Institute by whose care the Mystery of Faith is cultivated and cherished in youth. Therefore, We beg of God, the Author of all good, to show Himself propitious to the work of the Marist Brothers, and to prosper the above-named Juniorates. We earnestly recommend them to Our Venerable Brothers, the Archbishops and Bishops of the entire world, and We beg the Clergy and Christian families to confide to these Brothers youths whom they will educate as the hope of the Church.

Given at St. Peter's, Rome, under the seal of the Fisherman, the 7th February, 1908.

In the fifth year of Our Pontificate,

CARDINAL MERRY DEL VAL.
Secretary of State

IRELAND.

THE CHRISTIAN BROTHERS.

(Institutum Fratrum Christianorum de Hibernia).

The Institute of the Christian Brothers, founded in 1802 by the revered Edmond Ignatius Rice, was formally approved and confirmed in 1820 by a Brief of the Sovereign Pontiff, Pope Pius VII. of happy memory. Since that time it has received many special marks of favour from succeeding Popes—Pius VIII., Gregory XVI., Pius IX., Leo XIII., and Pius X.

The main object of the Brothers, after their own sanctification, is the Christian education of youth, to which, after due preparation, they entirely and irrevocably devote themselves.

The most suitable age for postulants to enter the novitiate is between 16 and 25; those seeking admission must possess the talents necessary to prosecute the course of studies prescribed by the Institute for its members. The Juniorate is at Baldoyle, Co. Dublin, where boys between the ages of 14 and 16, who seek admission to the Institute, are received and educated preparatory to their entering the Novitiate and Training College at St. Mary's, Marino, Dublin. Candidates anxious to join the Congregation should have letters of recommendation from their spiritual director or parish priest; they should also present their baptismal certificates. Further particulars may be obtained by applying to the Novice-Master, St. Mary's, Marino, Dublin, which is the Motherhouse and where the Superior General, the Rev. Br. J. C. Whitty resides.

ST. JOSEPH'S AFRICAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY, Cork.

The Society of African Missions was established at the earnest request of Pope Pius IX., of happy memory, and has for its end the education of missionaries for Africa. The most abandoned and self-sacrificing missions get the preference. The Holy See has lately authorised the opening of a Theological Seminary in Ireland, where English-speaking youths can continue their higher studies in preparation for the glorious work of the Apostolate in Africa.

Junior students are received at the Preparatory Colleges, namely: Apostolic College, Wilton, Cork, and Sacred Heart College, Ballinafad, Castlebar, Co. Mayo. From these Colleges they pass on to St. Joseph's Seminary, Blackrock Road, Cork.

For terms, apply to the Presidents of the Colleges.

Contributions for the Missionary Work are most earnestly solicited, as the expenses are great. A sum of £500 is sufficient to educate perpetually a young missionary.

Every Christian who takes to heart the honour of God will recognize the necessity of supporting such a meritorious work as the evangelization of their outcast brethren in Africa.

Benefactors may communicate with the Very Rev. Stephen Kyne, Provincial, St. Joseph's, Wilton, Cork.

BLACKROCK COLLEGE,

DUBLIN. C.S.Sp.,

By its brilliant record of well-maintained success in the INTERMEDIATE, THE UNIVERSITY, THE CIVIL SERVICE, Blackrock College has now for over 40 years held a FOREMOST PLACE among all the Colleges of Ireland, and has shown that it affords the highest educational advantages, and prepares its students successfully for all liberal careers. Every year numerous and striking SUCCESSES are obtained. The many distinguished positions worthily filled by PAST STUDENTS of Blackrock up to the highest rank in the Professions, in the Indian and the Home Service, and in various other spheres of life, amply attest the excellence of the TEACHING and FORMATION which they all received.

The College stands on a SITE unrivalled for health, beauty and convenience, and commands every attraction of both land and sea. The GROUNDS and BUILDINGS are beautiful, extensive, commodious, and splendidly equipped in every department. The LIBRARIES and the Science LABORATORIES are well furnished, and fitted up with all requirements. There is every facility for all indoor and outdoor GAMES; and at three minutes' walk from their playground the students can BATHE with perfect safety in Dublin Bay.

Blackrock is easily ACCESSIBLE to parents and pupils from all parts of the United Kingdom, and from all foreign lands. Many STEAMERS come daily from Great Britain to Dublin and Kingstown, to both of which TRAM and TRAIN pass continually by the College gate.

Boys are ADMITTED from an early age, and receive a complete, sound, and thorough EDUCATION. Students from abroad find everything to suit their requirements. Every care is taken of all, both the youngest and the oldest. DAY PUPILS receive the same teaching and attention as BOARDERS. The PERFECT ALL-ROUND TRAINING, both religious and secular, of each and every student, is the constant aim and endeavour of the President and all his staff.

The UNIVERSITY and CIVIL SERVICE COLLEGE, in a building quite apart, successfully prepares young men for the NATIONAL UNIVERSITY, the CIVIL SERVICE in all its branches, the Professions, and all liberal careers. Each student has his PRIVATE ROOM, and can enjoy every educational and social advantage at a SAFE distance from the dangers of city life.

The average number of students is over 300.

For PROSPECTUS of (1) COLLEGE, (2) UNIVERSITY AND CIVIL SERVICE COLLEGE, (3) DAY STUDENTS for (1) and (2), apply to VERY REV. N. J. BRENNAN, C.S.Sp., B.A., President.

P.S.—The JUNIOR SCHOLASTICATE is a distinct department in a separate building, where clerical students receive their early training to become priests in the Congregation of the Holy Ghost (C.S.Sp.). Young students well recommended as promising vocations will be favourably received. The average number of students is about 40. Apply for SPECIAL PROSPECTUS.

THE SISTERS OF THE MOST HOLY CROSS AND PASSION,

Mount St. Joseph, Deane, Bolton, have opened, in connection with their Mother House, an excellent Residential Secondary School, where students are prepared for all public examinations.

In addition to this, and for similar purposes, the Sisters have recently built and fully equipped a beautiful College — St. Joseph's College, Bradford—in connection with Parkfield House, where the students reside.

The Sisters especially devote themselves to preparing candidates for teaching in Secondary and Elementary Schools, to taking charge of schools, and to visiting the sick, the poor, and the negligent. They also found "homes" for girls of the working class, and thus seek to withdraw them from common lodging houses, and to foster in them habits of devotion and piety.

INSTITUTE OF OUR LADY OF THE CENACLE,

Alexandra Park, Manchester, founded in 1888.
63 Stamford Hill, London, N., founded in 1899.
7 Lance Lane, Wavertree, Liverpool, founded in 1908.
Atherton Street, New Brighton, founded in 1911.

Under the Patronage of His Eminence the Cardinal Archbishop of Westminster. His Grace the Archbishop of Liverpool, and Their Lordships the Bishops of Salford and Shrewsbury.

Novitiate in England.

The Religious of Our Lady of the Cenacle, so-called in allusion to the Upper Chamber, whither the disciples retired to pray before Pentecost, with Mary the Mother of Jesus, besides their own conventual life, devote themselves all through the year to the work of organizing Retreats and providing Religious Instruction for every class of their own sex without distinction, children included.

Retreats for children in elementary or other schools, or from home, in preparation for First Communion, followed by Perseverance Retreats for the same, form a special feature of the Cenacle. These can be arranged merely by applying to the Rev. Mother Superior, who will be most grateful for offerings to defray the expense of these gratuitous Retreats. The cost of keep is reckoned at 2s. per child. The Religious of the Cenacle are always prepared to board and lodge batches of retreat-makers in their own Convent, either at very moderate charges arranged to meet the means of each, or else with the aid of charitable offerings given by zealous persons for the purpose.

The following categories are included in their work: ladies, young women, governesses, teachers, nurses, mothers of families, Children of Mary, servants, working girls of every description, children, &c., &c.

Retreats for Ladies are organized and Private Retreats are provided for at any time of the year.

The distinctive features of the religious life of the Sisters of the Cenacle are: Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament exposed during the day and recitation of the Divine Office.

CONVENT OF THE VISITATION,

Roselands, Walmer, Kent.

Under the patronage of His Eminence the Cardinal Archbishop of Westminster and of His Lordship the Bishop of Southwark.

Staff of Certificated Teachers.

This Establishment offers to the pupils all the advantages of a superior English Education, the comforts and refining influences of home-life going hand in hand with the highest intellectual culture. The Convent is beautifully situated at a short distance from the sea, and is surrounded by extensive grounds. The Church with its artistic tower, the Convent and School buildings, have been erected according to the designs of the late Mr. Pugin, Architect, and are heated and ventilated throughout after the most modern system. Individual care is given to each pupil. The air is most beneficial to delicate girls, many of whom, after a short residence in the Convent, have become strong and healthy.

For many years the Convent has been a private centre for the Oxford Local and Higher Local Examinations, and a centre for the Royal Academy and Royal College of Music; the successes achieved by those of the pupils who have desired to be presented for the examinations, are a convincing proof of the efficiency of the teaching they receive. In addition to a superior English education, a thorough knowledge of modern languages with fluent conversation in the same, is assured; and if desired, pupils are prepared for the Higher Local and Honours Examination for Women in Modern Languages, by natives highly certificated. The Piano, Violin, and all accomplishments are taught after the best and most approved methods.

The railway station is within a short distance of the Convent.

For further particulars, apply to the Rev. Mother Superior.

References to parents of present and former pupils in England, Ireland, the Continent, and the British Colonies.

The following is an extract from the "Tablet," written by Lady Georgiana Fullerton:—

"Of the merits of St. Francis of Sales' daughters, whether as nuns or teachers, little need be said. In his day they were called by the common people 'the Holy Maries,' and the spirit bequeathed to them by their Founder and their first Mother, St. Jane Frances de Chantal, has not departed from amongst them. . . . If parents want for their children bracing sea-air . . . joined to all the other advantages of a good convent school, they could not find them better supplied than at Roselands."

ST. PHILOMENA'S COLLEGE,

CARSHALTON, SURREY.

CONDUCTED BY THE DAUGHTERS OF THE CROSS.

(UNDER THE PATRONAGE OF HIS LORDSHIP THE BISHOP OF SOUTHWARK.)

Young Ladies are prepared for the Higher and Lower Certificates of the Oxford and Cambridge Joint Board, and an Examiner from the Delegacy visits the school every year to inspect and examine the work. His reports may be seen at the Convent by the Parents of pupils.

Besides all the usual subjects, Chemistry is taught in a thoroughly up-to-date Laboratory, Swimming in the properly heated Swimming Bath, Cooking in the Demonstration-kitchen, Gymnastics by a trained London teacher, in the well-equipped Gymnasium, Music by special staff, Drawing and Painting in the spacious Studio, Riding in the School grounds (twenty-eight acres in extent), where a large meadow is set apart for Tennis, Hockey, Baseball and other games. A large but shallow lake enables the pupils to learn Rowing in perfect safety.

Each of the elder girls has a delightful bedroom to herself, while the younger children sleep in spacious cubicles.

There is a special Division for Higher Studies, in which Senior Pupils have ample facilities for conversing in Foreign Languages and are trained in social and domestic duties.

Large sums have just been spent on building and furnishing another complete wing, to cope with the increasing number of pupils. Nor has any expense been spared in making this establishment as perfect as modern science can devise.

ST. THOMAS OF AQUIN'S COLLEGE.

Under the Patronage of His Grace the Archbishop of St. Andrews and Edinburgh.

Founded by desire of His Grace the late Archbishop Macdonald to further the Higher Education of Women.

1. By giving a thorough professional training to educated women who intend to qualify themselves for the profession of teaching. This Department of the College has been recognised by the Cambridge Teachers' Training Syndicate, and a year's course of training at the College is formally recognised by the Board of Education as one of the qualifications for admission to the Register of Secondary Teachers. The number and variety of the Schools under the charge of the Community give exceptional facilities for practical work. Class teaching is under special supervision in Schools of varied grade and management, and all lessons are carefully revised and criticised. The students who have undergone training in this Department have been uniformly successful, and are now doing splendid work for Catholic Education in Secondary and Higher Grade Schools, Juniorates and Pupil Teachers' Centres, and are commanding high salaries.

The course of studies is arranged to meet the requirements of the Teachers' Certificate Examinations of the Universities of London and Cambridge; and board, residence, and private tuition are afforded to students attending classes in the University of Edinburgh for the Schoolmasters' Diploma.

2. By preparing students for the London University Degrees, the Honours Certificates of the Higher Local Examinations of Oxford and Cambridge, or for any other qualifying examinations.

In this Department students are prepared for the Preliminary Examinations of the Scottish Universities; and board, residence, and private tuition provided for those attending classes for the various degrees in the University of Edinburgh.

THE ASSOCIATION FOR THE PROPAGATION OF THE FAITH.

Under the special patronage of His Holiness the Pope (the British Branch under that of the Archbishops and Bishops of England, Scotland, and Wales). The Association assists by prayers and alms the Catholic Missionaries in heathen and non-Catholic countries.

CONDITIONS OF MEMBERSHIP.—(1) The daily recitation of one Our Father and one Hail Mary, with the invocation: St. Francis Xavier, pray for us; and (2) the annual contribution of not less than 2s. 2d. yearly, or one halfpenny weekly. (3) Special Members contribute one guinea or more, yearly.

ORGANIZATION.—The usual method of collection is by the formation of GROUPS or CIRCLES OF TEN MEMBERS, of whom one acts as COLLECTOR. The COLLECTOR receives the contributions of his group, circulates among them the ANNALS of the Association (published every two months), and pays over his collection to one of the Diocesan or Local Treasurers whose names are published in the ANNALS.

A Sample Copy of the ANNALS (price 7d., postage free) can be obtained from THE ANGELUS COMPANY, 4 Paternoster Row, London, E.C.

His Eminence the Cardinal Archbishop, addressing the First National Catholic Congress at Leeds, said:—

"The Bishops, conscious that our neglect of this matter is due not so much to want of zeal as to absorption in other matters, have with the concurrence and support of the Association for the Propagation of the Faith determined to appoint a priest who shall be a missionary of Foreign Missions, to travel the country over, in order by sermons, conferences, lectures, and personal influence to awaken zeal and vocations for Foreign Missions; and at the same time to obtain funds for the support and development of missions already in existence. In the name of all the Bishops I ask for this priest the goodwill, the sympathy and charity of all Catholics, clergy and laity of the whole province of Westminster. Zeal and generosity in this vast work of evangelisation will bring down the blessing of God upon our country, and give fresh life and success to the work of the Church at home."

Director: Rev. FRANCIS E. ROSS, 144 St. Stephen's House, Victoria Embankment, Westminster. Interviews by appointment.

WESTMINSTER DIOCESAN EDUCATION FUND.

The Fund was established by His Eminence CARDINAL MANNING in June, 1866, to promote the religious and secular education of the Catholic Poor Children in the diocese of Westminster. The Fund is applicable to—

1. The erection and the maintenance of Diocesan Certified Reformatory, Industrial, and Poor-Law Schools.
2. To providing religious Inspection for all the Schools in The Diocese.
3. To protecting the Faith of Catholic Children who are chargeable to the Poor Rates, or come under the operation of the Reformatory and Industrial Schools Acts.

Certified for the reception of Poor-Law Children.—St. Mary's Orphanage, North Hyde; St. Charles's School, Brentwood; St. Mary's Orphanage, Walthamstow. Industrial School.—St. Nicholas's, Manor Park. Reformatory.—St. John's, Walthamstow.

The schools included in the above list, which are immediately dependent on the Archbishop, require continual assistance from the Diocesan Education Fund to meet the expenses of repairs, painting, renewal of furniture and bedding, extension and improvement of premises, etc., which cannot be provided out of the ordinary income of the schools.

The children in the Home Office Schools (i.e., Industrial and Reformatory) have a greater claim on our pity than mere poverty, for they have all suffered from parental neglect and bad company, and without help would certainly fall into the criminal classes. The training given in these schools is not only most necessary for them, but, in nine cases out of ten, has proved thoroughly successful.

Bankers—London County & Westminster Bank, Ltd., Victoria Street, London, S.W.

Auditors—Messrs. Herman Lescher, Stephens and Co., 6 Clements Lane, E.C.

Secretary and Treasurer—T. W. Hunter, Esq., M.A., K.S.G., Archbishop's House, Westminster, S.W., by whom the smallest contributions will be gratefully received and acknowledged.

FORM OF BEQUEST.

I give to the Westminster Diocesan Education Fund the sum of £ free of legacy duty, to be applied under the direction, and to promote the objects, of the said Society as if the same formed part of the funds arising from voluntary subscriptions, with liberty to apply such legacy as in aid of the said voluntary subscriptions; and I declare that the receipt of the Secretary of the said Society for the time being shall be a good discharge for the said legacy.

THE CATHOLIC EDUCATION COUNCIL.

Chairman—The Duke of Norfolk, E.M., K.G.

Trustees—The Duke of Norfolk, E.M., K.G., Lord Clifford of Chudleigh, and W. J. Fitzherbert Brockholes, Esq.

Bankers—The London Joint Stock Bank, 69, Pall Mall, S.W.

Solicitor—Guy Ellis, Esq., 4 Raymond Buildings, Gray's Inn, W.C.

Secretary and Treasurer—F. R. Anderton, Esq., 7 Mitre Court Buildings, Temple, London. E.C.

The Catholic Education Council, established in 1905 by the Bishops of England, Wales, and Scotland, represents the Bishops and the Catholic Body in matters which concern Catholic Education. The Council is a modification and continuation, rendered necessary by the Education Act of 1902, of the old Catholic School Committee, which was founded in 1847 ; and it has also taken over the work of the Secondary Education Council, founded in 1904, which includes the question of Pupil Teacher Centres and Secondary Schools for Catholics. The Council is recognised by the Government as the successor of the Catholic School Committee for the purpose of representing difficulties which arise between the Managers of Schools and the Board of Education. Another function of the Council is to secure, as far as possible, the efficiency of Catholic Public Elementary Schools by educating a due supply of Trained Teachers, which it does through the means of Training Colleges.

The Training College for men, St. Mary's, Hammersmith, is the property of the Council, and the Council is responsible to the Hierarchy and Board of Education, not only for its efficiency and well-being, but also for that part of its expenses not covered by the public grant for Education.

Grants are made to the Training Colleges for Women at the Convent of Notre Dame, Mount Pleasant, Liverpool ; the Sacred Heart, St. Charles' Square, North Kensington ; Notre Dame, Dowanhill, Glasgow ; the Convent of the Faithful Companions, Salford ; the Convent of the Sainte Union at Southampton ; the Convent of Mercy, Hull, and the Sacred Heart, Newcastle-on-Tyne.

Upon the supply of teachers depends the prosperity of Catholic schools, the efficiency of their teaching, and their share in the public grant. Any falling off in the efficiency of teachers would at once cause a proportionate loss of this grant.

The Council, at the request of the Bishops, assists them in sundry payments towards the expenses of Ecclesiastical Inspection, and many applications for grants are received from various quarters which cannot be acceded to owing to lack of funds.

It is to be observed that the objects above mentioned lie outside the ordinary provision of a diocese for its wants. They regard the whole mass of dioceses viewed as one body. Those who support only local schools fulfil, in consequence, but half their obligation.

Form of Bequest to the Catholic Education Council.

I give to the Catholic Education Council the sum of £ free of legacy duty, to be applied under the direction, and to promote the objects, of the said Council as if the same formed part of the funds arising from voluntary subscriptions, with liberty to apply such legacy as income in aid of the said voluntary subscriptions. And I declare that the receipt of the Chairman of the said Council for the time being shall be a good discharge for the said legacy.

ST. ANSELM'S SOCIETY.

(Founded in 1860 with the Sanction and Blessing of the Holy See.)

Patrons:—The Cardinal Archbishop of Westminster.
The English, Irish and Scotch Hierarchies.

President: The Right Rev. Bishop Brindle, D.S.O.

Hon. Sec. and Treasurer:—The Rev. W. M. Cunningham, 3 Dyer's Buildings, Holborn, E.C. (opposite Prudential).

The special work of St. Anselm's Society, carried on by its Committees, is the much needed one of reading non-Catholic books, and selecting those only that contain nothing contrary to good taste, faith or morals. The books so chosen are recommended to Catholics in the Society's Book Lists. The Society also makes grants in aid of parochial libraries, and publishes useful books. Publishing on commission undertaken on most moderate terms for Catholic authors.

Annual subscription 10/- per annum, entitling members :—

1. To receive all Lists post free.
2. To the privilege of purchasing books at the Depôt, at a discount of 30 per cent. off published prices, net books excepted.

The Society has re-opened its Depôt or Book Store for supplying the Catholic public with its own publications (list on application), as well as those of any other publisher, at 3 Dyer's Buildings, Holborn, E.C. Five per cent. extra discount for cash on all publications of St. Anselm's Society, ordered direct from Depôt. 'Phone 6796 Holborn.

ST. MARY'S NURSERY COLLEGE.

Principal : Mrs. Bernard Mole (Clapham Maternity Hospital Certificate), assisted by a trained Children's Nurse, Domestic Science and Kindergarten (Frœbel Union) Teachers, also Medical and other Lecturers.

St. Mary's Nursery College provides for the training of Catholic gentlewomen as Nursery Nurses.

The demand for Children's Nurses far exceeds the supply, and here is provided an inexpensive training by which educated women who have natural sympathy for little children can earn an independent living.

The training includes : (I.) A Practical Course—The daily care and feeding of resident infants and children, from a fortnight to seven years old ; the duties and management of a Nursery (all the work being done by the Students) : Nursery Cooking ; Nursery Laundry ; Needlework (special point being made of cutting-out and making of children's clothes, knitting and mending). (II.) A Course of Instruction is given by Qualified Teachers on the following subjects :—The Religious Teaching of Young Children ; Nursery Hygiene ; Child's Physiology ; First Aid ; Kindergarten Occupations, Games and Songs.

Fee : The Course of Training is six months ; and the inclusive fee for Board, Residence and Tuition is thirty-six guineas.

Diploma : At the end of six months, students whose work is satisfactory will receive a Certificate and be entitled to wear the uniform of the College.

Kindergarten : A School has now been established on the College premises in which every student is expected to take a short course. The School is on the most modern lines and has the advantage of the advice of Miss E. E. Lawrence, Principal of the Frœbel Institute, West Kensington.

Babies and little children are taken by the College, and receive the best attention while they form the subjects for the Students' care.

The educated woman who is a child-lover, and desires a quiet home life without a long professional training, would find in the Nursery a useful and well-paid career. To fit women for such a career is the object of the College, as well as to enable those who are entering upon the responsibilities of married life to acquire valuable domestic knowledge.

Address : Mrs. Bernard Mole, St. Mary's Nursery College, Belsize Lane, Hampstead, N.W.

TYBURN.

Some years ago the Order of Adoration founded at Montmartre, the Mount of Martyrs of France, in honour of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, was called by His Eminence Cardinal Vaughan to establish a centre of adoration, of reparation and constant prayer, for England close to the London Calvary, where died our glorious Martyrs.

And now, near the spot where formerly stood the Tyburn gibbet, the King of Martyrs has raised His Eucharistic Throne. While waiting until Divine Providence shall permit a larger and more fitting Sanctuary to be built to the glory of the Sacred Heart and of His Martyrs, we have already a temporary Chapel where the Blessed Sacrament is exposed day and night, and an oratory enriched with many precious relics of the Martyrs.

The Convent of Tyburn is devoted by a special vow to the great cause of the return of England to Catholic unity. By a life of prayer and penance the nuns strive to raise unceasingly towards the Sacred Heart the great supplication which burst at the supreme moment from one of the most glorious heroes of Tyburn: "Jesus, convert England! Jesus, have mercy on this country!" But the Tyburn Shrine is in great danger. The work is still burdened with a heavy debt, and the nuns have spent their all in its foundation.

His Eminence Cardinal Bourne, Archbishop of Westminster, has most kindly authorised an appeal for Tyburn.

It has been proposed by the Right Rev. Mgr. John Vaughan, Bishop of Sebastopolis, that the Faithful should be asked to save Tyburn by contributing 105 pounds, crowns, shillings, sixpences, or pence in honour of the 105 Martyrs. Those who give at least £105 towards the Debt Fund will be known as

THE FOUNDERS OF TYBURN.

Their names or initials will be engraved and placed in the Chapel for perpetual remembrance. Tyburn numbers now 14 Founders. One hundred are wanted to ensure the foundation of this house of prayer and place of pilgrimage.

Another means suggested to help Tyburn is that of the TYBURN TREES.

Every Tyburn Tree has, besides the trunk, 12 branches, each subscribing £4 a year towards the support of Tyburn.

ECUCHARISTIC LIGHTS

are kept perpetually burning for the Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, An alms of 10s. towards these lights will provide their burning during twenty-fours for the intentions of the donor.

Moreover, any offerings or annual subscriptions, however small, are most gratefully received and acknowledged. All benefactors have a share in the prayers and penances, and in the work of Adoration and Divine Praise of the Community; their names are inscribed in a book called the Liber Vitæ, or "Book of Life," kept ever near the Altar. Cheques and Postal Orders should be made payable to the Rev. Mother, Tyburn Convent, A.S.H., 6, Hyde Park Place, London, W. The Bankers are Messrs. Barclay and Co., 27, Cavendish Square, W.

THE CATHOLIC BENEFIT SOCIETY.

In hoc signo vinces.

The Catholic Benefit Society, established 1871, is "registered" under the Friendly Societies Act, 1875, and is "approved" under the National Insurance Act, 1911, by the Joint Commission for England, Ireland, Scotland and Wales.

It enjoys the Special Blessing of the Supreme Pontiff, the patronage of the Cardinal Archbishop of Westminster, the Archbishops of Birmingham, Liverpool, Edinburgh, and Glasgow, and most of the other Bishops of Great Britain, as well as the active support of the leading clergy and laity.

The Society is exclusively confined to Catholics, men and women (with a juvenile section), and therefore, while being a powerful unit in the organisation of the Catholic body, extends to its members in times of sickness and distress that consolation which only the bonds of religion can impart. There are now 200 branches in the United Kingdom, with more than 30,000 members, extending in England from Northumberland to Sussex. On the "voluntary" side the Society has accumulated funds of over £19,000, and since its formation has paid more than £105,443 18s. 5d. in benefits. These figures show that a Catholic Society can be as successfully managed as any other.

The Bishops of England have collectively urged upon Catholics who come under the Insurance Act to insure themselves in Catholic Societies, thus helping most powerfully in the spread of Catholic unity and solidarity, and the Board of Management of the Catholic Benefit Society earnestly appeals to the clergy and social workers to assist in the formation of Branches in those parishes where no Catholic Insurance Society yet exists. No parish or congregation is too small for the Society's activities, and any of the officers will gladly give all information.

A Bottle of Water from St. Winefride's Well will be sent immediately on receipt of Postal Order for 1s., made payable to Fr. RYAN, Holywell, N. Wales. Stamps should not be sent if a Postal Order can be obtained. The address to which the Water is to be forwarded should be written clearly and in full. As the 1s. somewhat exceeds the cost entailed in the sending of the Water, the surplus is devoted to purposes connected with the Shrine of St. Winefride, the support of the Hospice, &c., and may be considered as a small offering in honour of St. Winefride. Those who cannot afford this donation will receive the Water on receipt of sufficient to cover the postage. If the Water is lost in transit, inform Fr. RYAN, and an additional supply will be sent free of cost.

ST. WINEFRIDE'S HOSPICE, HOLYWELL.

The Hospice is intended to supply poor Pilgrims, and those of slender means, with Board and Lodging during their visit to Holywell. It is in charge of the Sisters of Charity of St. Paul. The ordinary period of stay is a week or ten days, but this time may be extended under certain conditions. Those who can afford it are charged 1s. per day for their Board and Lodging. They are also expected to pay an Entrance Fee of 2s. 6d. Those who cannot afford this are admitted at a lower rate. All, but especially the more needy ones, should bring, if possible, a note of recommendation from their Priest. Application for admittance should be made to the SUPERIORESS, or to FATHER RYAN. Holywell. The Hospice is a short distance from the Well. A branch line lands travellers in the vicinity of the Well.

Holywell is between Chester and Rhyl, on the London and North-Western Railway. Travellers from England and Scotland (Liverpool, Manchester, etc.) will generally have to change at Chester. From Ireland (viâ Holyhead), change usually at Bangor and Rhyl.

A charge of 2d. is made for entrance to the Well, and 2d. more for use of towel and bathing-gown, but such as cannot afford so much will be given a free bathing ticket on application to Fr. Ryan. Return 3rd Class Tickets, available for two months, from Dublin (North Wall) to Holywell, price 12/6, may be had from May to the end of September.

LEAGUE OF THE CROSS.

President—
H.E. THE CARDINAL ARCHBISHOP OF WESTMINSTER.

Chairman of Executive—
THE VERY REV. CANON MURNANE, M.R.

Chairman of the General Council—
REV. J. NEWTON.

General Secretary—
REV. J. F. MOYNIHAN,
36 Nightingale Square, Balham, London, S.W.

---

1. The Total Abstinence League of the Cross was founded in London in 1873, by His Eminence Cardinal Manning, for the purpose of uniting Catholics, both Clergy and Laity, in a Holy Warfare against Intemperance, and of thereby improving the religious, social, and domestic condition of many of our Catholic people.

2. The League of the Cross does not declare the temperate use of beer, wine, or spirits, etc., to be unlawful. The abuse, however, of intoxicating drink quickly leads to grievous sin, and is one of the chief causes of the great misery which exists.

FUNDAMENTAL RULES.

1. The Pledge shall be of Total Abstinence and shall be taken without limit as to time.
   The Pledge does not prevent the taking of intoxicating drink under medical advice. As soon, however, as the necessity ceases, the practice of Total Abstinence must be resumed by anyone who wishes to remain a member of the League.

2. Only Catholics can be members.

3. All members shall live as good, practical Catholics; only such shall hold office in the League.
    The members are exhorted to go at least once a month to Confession and Holy Communion. Many Indulgences specially granted by the Holy See.

4. Each member shall subscribe one penny monthly towards the general expenses of the League.

The General Council meets at Archbishop's House, Westminster, at 8 p.m., on the last Monday of each month.

THE SISTERS OF CHARITY OF ST. VINCENT OF PAUL,

Carlisle-Place, Victoria-street, Westminster.

(Near the Victoria Station).

Under the patronage of H. E. Cardinal Bourne.

The House of Charity contains the following works: an orphanage for girls over two years of age, work-room, and an elementary day school for girls; classes of preparation for first Communion, and catechetical instruction on Sundays for girls, also on alternate Sundays, meetings for deaf and dumb boys and girls; a night-school for men and boys; and the daily visiting and relieving of the poor and sick of the two parishes of Westminster, one of the most destitute parts of London.

As these works are supported by voluntary offerings, and the greater number of the children are entirely left on the Sisters' hands, they are compelled to appeal for help, that they may carry on their work.

Yearly subscriptions, however small their amount, would be gladly accepted, and can be remitted to the Sister Superioress, Carlisle-place, Victoria-street, Westminster.

Plain and fine needlework executed in the work-room; also embroidery and artificial flowers for churches.

A Soup Kitchen has been opened for the benefit of the poor of the two parishes, for which subscriptions in kind or money are most earnestly requested. A Home has been established for a limited number of business girls and servants out of employment.

MARIA YOUNG'S SPINSTERS' FUND.

Founded by the late Miss Maria Teresa Young, of Kingerby Hall, Lincolnshire.

TRUSTEES.

Messrs. J. J. Baldwin Young (Chairman); Hugo J. Young, K.C.; John C. Fieldsend; William J. Drakes; Smelter J. Young; J. Francis Warrington; Philip K. Wake; James J. Parfitt, K.C.; A. T. Trevor F. Young, and Gerald J. Hardman.

Annuities are granted to about twenty spinster ladies who have been born in a superior station of society and are now in reduced circumstances.

The necessary conditions of the Trust are that annuitants must be reduced as above, and have been born in and be resident in England, by religious profession Roman Catholic, and spinsters who shall (excepting under very special circumstances) have attained the age of fifty years.

Preference is required to be given to applicants so qualified thus:—

Firstly, to ladies who shall have been born in the County of Lincoln, and who likewise are or have been governesses in private families, or have kept or been teachers at schools.

Secondly, to ladies born in the County of Lincoln.

Thirdly, to ladies born in England, other than the County of Lincoln, and who likewise are or have been governesses in private families, or have kept or been teachers at schools.

Fourthly, to ladies fulfilling the necessary conditions who are now in necessitous circumstances.

The Trustees meet half-yearly to consider applications and fill up vacancies.

Donations or legacies will be thankfully received by any one or more of the Trustees in furtherance of this great charity, or with such limitations as to the class to which such additions to the fund shall be devoted as the donors may desire.

All further information and forms of petition for an annuity may be obtained on application by letter to 25 Bank Street, Sheffield.

December, 1912 BERNARD CLARK, Clerk to the Trustees.

AGED POOR SOCIETY,

INSTITUTED A.D. 1708.

Offices : 39 Gerrard-street, Soho, London, W.

Patron

H.E. the Cardinal Archbishop of Westminster.

President—His Grace the Duke of Norfolk, E.M., K.G.

Vice-Presidents—The Earl of Denbigh ; Lord Howard of Glossop ; Col. Lord E. B. Talbot, D.S.O., M.P.; F. H. Lescher, Esq. ; Very Rev. J. Provost Moore ; Rev. A. W. Clements ; Rev. Charles A. Cox.

Treasurer—Lieut.-Colonel J. Ratton.

Hon. Secretary—John Henry Behan, Esq.

The Society grants pensions to poor aged Catholics of respectability, over a Hundred at present receiving weekly : men, 4s. ; women, 3s. A Christmas Gift is also made to them, and to about One Hundred more, who, though approved, are not yet in receipt of the pension.

Other Pensions of 26*l.* a year from funds left by the late Miss Molineux, T. J. Eyre, Esq., and others, are granted to Thirty-four aged Catholics, reduced from a superior station of society. Candidates are elected by the votes of the governors and subscribers.

Vacancies in St. Joseph's Almshouses, Brook-green, Hammersmith, are also filled by the votes of the Governors and subscribers. There are 30 inmates, twelve of whom receive 20*l.* a year each from endowments, and the others ten guineas a year.

An annual subscription of One Guinea entitles the subscriber (after the third subscription) to be a Governor, with power to nominate one person to the life pension, who, if approved of, will be immediately placed on the list of approved petitioners, and in due time become a pensioner of the Society for life ; also to vote at Elections for the Molineux-Eyre Pension and for St. Joseph's almshouses, and to recommend candidates for election.

A Donation of 20*l.* paid in one sum constitutes a Governor for Life, and entitles the Donor at all times to have two persons on the pension list.

All legacies should be left to the Treasurer of the Society for the time being.

Subscriptions and donations are earnestly solicited, and will be thankfully received by the Patron, President, Vice-Presidents, and Treasurer ; and by the Secretary, of whom every information may be obtained at the office—

ST. ANN'S HOME FOR PENITENTS,

PORTOBELLO ROAD, NORTH KENSINGTON.

This Home is conducted by the Dominican Nuns of the Congregation of St. Vincent Ferrer. Their special aim is the rehabilitation of those under their care. Nothing is left undone to procure them a bright and happy home. Their future also is provided for, and a respectable position in society is assured them if merited by good conduct during their sojourn in the Home.

Women and Girls of all denominations are equally welcomed.

The penitents are employed in laundry and needle work.

Subscriptions and donations will be gratefully received, also clothing.

Prayers are daily offered for all benefactors.

For particulars, apply to the Rev. Mother Prioress.

J.M.J.

THE LITTLE SISTERS OF THE POOR.

The Little Sisters of the Poor provide homes for the aged poor of both sexes; feed them, clothe them, and minister to all their wants. They support the old people under their care by whatever public charity affords them, collecting alms daily from house to house in money, food, old clothing, or anything that may be offered them.

The Institution was founded in 1840, at St. Servan in Brittany (France), and has gradually spread over France, Belgium, Spain, England, Ireland, Scotland, Italy, America, Africa, Asia, Australia and China. The Little Sisters of the Poor have now over 310 houses, containing above 45,000 old people, who have thus found a comfortable home for their declining years; twenty-seven of these houses are in the United Kingdom.

Legacies, subscriptions and donations will be thankfully received by the Mother Superior of any of the Houses.

The three houses in London are:— St. Joseph's House, Portobello Road, W. St. Peter House, Meadow Road, South Lambeth, S.W. St. Ann House, Manor Park, Stoke Newington, N.

Bequests to the Little Sisters of the Poor must be in goods, in money in large and small amounts, or in securities immediately convertible into money.

CONVENT OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD,

East Finchley, N.

Subscriptions and donations are earnestly and humbly asked in aid of the 200 poor penitents, and also to help in the support of the 140 young girls of the Preventative Home. In return, the grateful prayers of the Community and children are promised for all their benefactors.

Cheques may be made payable to the Mother Provincial, Rosa Maguire, or to the Mother Prioress, Jane M. Thornton.

SISTERS OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD,

Blackley, Manchester.

The Sisters of the Good Shepherd, Blackley, Manchester, earnestly solicit, for the love of God, a contribution of One Shilling from every reader of this appeal, towards the reduction of their heavy debt contracted in providing accommodation for the 240 inmates of their Refuge.

PLEASE DON'T REFUSE.

Address—PRIORESS, Good Shepherd Convent, Blackley, Manchester.

CONVENT OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD,

South Gosforth, Newcastle-on-Tyne.

The Sisters will be very grateful for any donations to enable them to finish the Home, so as to be able to afford shelter to the number of poor girls and women who apply for admission.

Cheques payable to the Mother Prioress, Elizabeth M. Adamson.

CONVENT OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD,

Arno's Vale, Bristol.

The Sisters of the Good Shepherd will be grateful for Subscriptions and Donations towards the support of the 220 poor Girls and Women in the Home. The prayers of the Sisters and children are daily offered for all benefactors.

Cheques and P.O.'s to be made payable to the Mother Prioress.

CONVENT OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD,

Eton Lodge, Wavertree, Liverpool.

The Home for Penitents, which was opened in 1903, shelters 100 poor girls and women. The sisters have constantly to refuse very sad cases for want of room, and as there is still a large sum owing for the initial expenses, they cannot provide further accommodation unless charitable friends help them to do so.

The prayers of the Community and penitents are daily offered for all benefactors.

Subscriptions and Donations will be gratefully received by the Mother Prioress, MARY ANGELA HERBERT.

CONVENT OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD,

Ford, near Liverpool.

Subscriptions and donations are earnestly and humbly asked in aid of the poor Penitents (230 in number), and in return the grateful prayers of the Community are promised for all their benefactors.

Cheques may be made payable to the Mother Prioress,

ADA M. GIBBONS.

CONVENT OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD,

Tollcross, Glasgow.

The Sisters of the Good Shepherd will be most grateful for contributions to aid them in the support of the 230 poor girls and women in the Refuge under their care.

Cheques and P.O.'s to be made payable to the Mother Prioress,

JANE BRAND.

CONVENT OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD,

Fulham Palace Road, Hammersmith, W.

The Sisters of the Good Shepherd would be most grateful for any help towards the support of the 230 poor penitents and young girls under their care. Many of the kind friends who so generously helped them in the past, are now gone to receive from the Good Shepherd the reward of their charity. The Sisters pray that He may inspire others to replace them, and help to carry on the work of rescuing those so dear to His Sacred Heart. The prayers of the Sisters and Penitents are daily offered for all benefactors.

Subscriptions and donations will be most thankfully received by the Mother Prioress.

ST. SAVIOUR'S REFUGE & NIGHT SHELTER,

Paul Street, Bevington Bush, and "Rosemont," 311 Edge Lane, Liverpool.

UNDER CARE OF THE POOR SERVANTS OF THE MOTHER OF GOD.

This Institution comprises a Refuge for penitent women and Night Shelter where destitute and homeless women can find food and shelter for the night. Inmates of the Refuge are trained in laundry work and such occupations as will qualify them afterwards to earn a livelihood. The Night Shelter is open all night to admit houseless women and girls, so that necessity may not compel them to remain exposed to the dangers of the streets.

The success which has marked this work is the best proof of its necessity; since its opening in 1891, 3,121 have entered the Refuge and 51,183 the Night Shelter.

In connection with the Institution there is a large and suitable house in the outskirts of the city, "Rosemont," Edge Lane, where the Sisters and inmates will have an outlet, from time to time, for fresh air.

Donations and Subscriptions to be sent to the Rev. W. PINNINGTON, Great Mersey Street, Liverpool; the Sister Superior, at Paul Street, Bevington Bush, or paid to account of the Institution at Lloyd's Bank, Brunswick Street, Liverpool.

ST. PHILIP'S HOUSE,

401, Mile End Road, E.

This House has been established for ladies who wish to work among the poor in the East of London, and who are willing to reside there for a longer or shorter period to carry on the various works of charity and instruction, under the direction of the Rector of the Mission.

The works undertaken are Visiting the Sick and Poor, Teaching in the Sunday School and Instructions for the Sacraments, and Superintendence of the Mother's Meetings, Clothing Clubs, etc., and the Management of the Girls' and Boys' Clubs.

Ladies wishing to join the work, or willing to help it by gifts of money, clothes, etc., are invited to apply for further particulars to—

or to—
MISS SLATTERY,
401, Mile End Road, E.

WORK ROOMS, STONE,

Established over thirty years to give work to the young girls of the Congregation under the care of the Religious.

Every kind of church embroidery, vestments, banners, altar linen, boys' cassocks, birettas, girdles, &c., are undertaken at moderate prices—also secular embroidery and underlinen.

Direct to the Sister-in-Charge, Dominican Convent, Stone, Staffordshire.

HOUSE OF MERCY, ST. EDWARD'S CONVENT,

11 Harewood Avenue (late Blandford Square), London, W.

The Sisters of Mercy have in connection with their Convent a House of Mercy, where young girls are trained for service, taught the duties of household work, and plain sewing. The age of admission is 15 years, and the girls are generally placed out to service at 17. For girls who are received under 15 years of age a pension of £8 is asked.

LIVERPOOL AND COUNTY POLICE COURTS CATHOLIC AID SOCIETY.

Daily in the Police Courts Catholic persons are brought up before the Magistrates—some are discharged, some let off on a promise of amendment, and some sent to goal. In 1904 this Society was formed to help these classes. By 1910 the work had so increased that 7,866 males and females were interviewed in the Courts, 1,235 in Prison, and 4,033 in the Office of the Society. 454 were bound over, let off absolutely, or into the Society's care ; 449 entered Homes. Situations for 355 and daily work for 244 were found ; 616 received temporary aid, and 1,378 free meals were given. The Blouse and Skirt Guild has helped to clothe many a poor girl, thus enabling her to obtain a situation. Cast-off garments of all descriptions of both sexes, or rolls of grey calico or flannelette are earnestly asked for to help these poor released prisoners.

LORETO HOUSE, FORD.

A small house of consideration for Girls who have been in custody, or destitute young girls in danger, under the care of the Nuns of the Good Shepherd, who study the characters of the Girls so that they may be placed with their relatives, in Training or Rescue Homes, or in situations. The Society now supports five beds, but 163 girls, more than half of whom were under 20 years of age, passed through the Home last year. For the upkeep of this most useful Home funds are also urgently needed. £20 would support one bed for one year.

Subscriptions and donations to be sent to the Chairman and Hon. Treasurer, P. E. J. HEMELRYK, Esq., J.P., O.R.S., 7 New Cotton Exchange, Liverpool.

THE MOTHER HOUSE AND NOVITIATE OF THE CONGREGATION OF THE POOR SISTERS OF NAZARETH.

Applications for the admission of Candidates to the Novitiate are to be made to the Reverend Mother-General, who will be happy to furnish all particulars.

(Telegraphic Address : "Religio, London.")

The Sisters devote themselves to the care of the Aged Poor of both sexes, and of Orphan and Incurable Children, whom they receive into Houses specially adapted for that purpose. To the Aged Poor and Incurable Children they give a permanent home ; the Orphan Children they educate and fit for after life. The Institution has no funds, and depends for support on the alms daily collected by the Sisters,—the money, food and clothes, bestowed by the generous and charitable.

Organ—"THE HARVEST," a monthly periodical, subscription 1*s.* 6*d.* per annum, post-free, to be sent to the Manager, Bishop's House, Salford.

OBJECTS.

The Society has two distinct objects.—First, the rescuing of Catholic children from proselytising homes and refuges. Second, to provide homes for those who, through the desertion or death of a non-Catholic parent, would be compelled to enter the workhouse, or institutions dangerous to their faith, and thus be brought up in the loss of their faith.

Donations, and subscriptions are most earnestly solicited.

HOW ALL CAN HELP THE SOCIETY.

A few Hints to be put into Practice.

1. By providing a sum of 300*l.* to endow a bed.
2. Undertake to maintain a child. 13*l.* a year will do this.
3. 12*l.* will pay for complete outfit and passage-money of any child emigrated.
4. Become honorary members of the Society—by subscription of 1*l.* 1*s.* a year.
5. Keep all cast-off clothing for our children.
6. Adopt our orphan boys and girls.
7. Subscribe to The Harvest, 1*s.* 6*d.* a year, published monthly.
8. Subscribe to "St. Gerard's Home" for Destitute Youths.

THE CRUSADE OF RESCUE AND HOMES FOR DESTITUTE CATHOLIC CHILDREN.

FOUNDED 1859. INCORPORATED 1905.

(The Official Society for Rescue Work in the Archdiocese of Westminster and the Diocese of Portsmouth.)

Patron :—Her Most Catholic Majesty the Queen of Spain.

President :—H.E. the Cardinal Archbishop of Westminster.

Administrator :—Rev. E. Bans.

Assistant Administrator : Rev. H. Collins.

Treasurer :—Henry Millington Bexfield, Esq. (Manager, National Bank, Ltd., Harrow Road Branch).

Secretary :—William Tipper.

NOW MAINTAINING NEARLY 1,000 CHILDREN (BOYS AND GIRLS) IN THE HOMES.

FUNDS ARE URGENTLY NEEDED.

A sum of at least £16,000 per annum is required to provide for the children in the Homes and to carry on the work successfully.

The Motto of this Society is :

"NO CATHOLIC CHILD who is REALLY DESTITUTE, or WHOSE FAITH is in DANGER, and WHO CANNOT BE OTHERWISE PROVIDED FOR, is ever REFUSED."

H.E. the Cardinal Archbishop of Westminster, writes :—

"There must be a rapid and very considerable increase in the number of those who pledge themselves to give annual subscriptions for the saving of our children. Even in the Archdiocese alone it ought not to be impossible to find sixteen thousand generous souls able and ready to contribute, each one pound, to this all important charity."

"We cannot believe that the Faithful will allow the Crusade of Rescue to languish for want of Funds when they once realise the nature and vital importance of the interests that are committed to it."

All donations will be gratefully acknowledged by the Rev. E. BANS, "Crusade of Rescue," 48 Compton St., Nr. Russell Square, London, W.C.

THE SISTERS OF CHARITY.

9 Lower Seymour-street, Portman-square, London, W.

The following charitable works are under the care of the Sisters, and are supported by voluntary subscriptions: A Crèche or Day Nursery for infants; an Orphanage; a Home for young business girls; an Elementary Day School for girls and infants is attached to the Institution.

The poor of the parish and those of St. Charles', Ogle-street and Warwick-street, are relieved and visited at their own homes, and receive religious instruction from the Sisters.

Needlework is done by the Orphans; and the Sisters will be grateful if ladies will patronise this work, by having under-linen and children's clothes, &c., made at the Convent.

Gifts of old clothes for men and women, &c., will be gratefully received.

Yearly subscriptions and donations, however small, will be thankfully accepted, and can be sent to the Very Rev. Canon Gildea, D.D., Spanish-place Presbytery, W.; or to Sister Joseph Costello, 9 Lower Seymour-street, Portman-square, W.

'SAVE THE DESTITUTE MOTHER AND THE CHILD!'

HOUSE OF PROVIDENCE,

"Kelton," Woodlands Road, Aigburth, Liverpool.

UNDER THE CARE OF SISTERS OF THE SACRED HEARTS OF JESUS AND MARY.

This Institution has been transferred from West Dingle (which was only a temporary Home and far too small for its requirements), to the above address, since December, 1910.

The Institution was founded in 1897 by the late Rt. Rev. Mgr. Nugent, its chief object being to provide a safe refuge for destitute unwedded mothers and their infants, and thereby to prevent the prevalent destruction of child life. Infanticide under some of its worst forms has become so widespread that an asylum of this character had long been an urgent necessity. How many unfortunate unmarried mothers have fallen through circumstances rather than choice or wilfulness? Ruined and then cruelly deserted, they seek to hide their shame by resorting to acts from which they would otherwise naturally shrink in horror.

No infant is admitted unless the mother enters with it, and remains at least twelve months to nurse and work for her child. The natural maternal tie is thus fostered and maintained, with the most satisfactory results, as shown by the working of the Institution and the very gratifying success already achieved. Help is now urgently needed to support and develop this merciful and beneficent agency for the saving the poor destitute mother and child—a work so dear to the Sacred Heart of our divine Lord—and to assist the good Sisters in paying off the crushing debt of £5,500, and towards which his Grace the Archbishop of Liverpool very kindly gave the Lenten Alms this year, £600.

A few words as to how the mother and child are saved may not be out of place. Whilst in the Institution the mother is reformed and thoroughly confirmed in a life of virtue. She tends her own babe as one of her many daily duties. Then when she goes forth once more into the world, the devoted Sisters always see that she has a safe and respectable livelihood, which enables her to bring up her little one in security and adequate comfort.

Donations and Subscriptions to be sent to the REV. EDMUND WALSH, St. Thomas, Waterloo, Liverpool, or the Rev. Mother, House of Providence, Aigburth, Liverpool. Prayers said daily for all kind Benefactors. Parcels of new or old clothing will be most gratefully received by the Rev. Mother, House of Providence, "Kelton," Woodlands Road, Aigburth, Liverpool.

SERVANTS OF THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS,

NOVITIATE HOUSE FOR THE ENGLISH PROVINCE.

Hassett-road, Homerton, London, N.E.

The Servants of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, whose Mother House is at Versailles, France, devote themselves principally to the needs of the poor and working classes. They accept the direction of Elementary Schools and Orphanages. They also have charge of the French Hospital, Shaftesbury Avenue, and the Convalescent Home at Brighton. Home for domestics and business girls while waiting for situations—8 Gloucester Road, Regent's Park, N.W.; and Workroom—29 Alfred Place, South Kensington, W.; also The Convent, Hornbrook House, Chislehurst.

For particulars, apply to the Rev. Mother Provincial, by whom donations and subscriptions, also clothing or anything useful for the Orphanage, will be most thankfully received.

SHREWSBURY DIOCESAN CHILDREN'S RESCUE SOCIETY.

This Society was established in 1889 to protect and rescue the children of Catholic parents from the danger of losing their faith. It has been the means of rescuing many little ones from the influence of drunken and worthless parents and of placing them in good situations, or finding them homes in Canada. It also directs its efforts to securing the removal to Catholic Poor Law Certified Schools of our workhouse children.

Funds are urgently needed to carry on the good work, and any amount will be gratefully acknowledged by the Hon. Treasurer, Mr. Edward Singleton, Maryville, Forest Road, Birkenhead, and any information given by the Hon. Secretary, Mr. E. R. Hoskinson, Solicitor, 22, Water Street, Liverpool, and "Hilgrove," King's Mount, Birkenhead.

THE BIRMINGHAM DIOCESAN RESCUE SOCIETY.

President: HIS GRACE THE ARCHBISHOP OF BIRMINGHAM.

Object.—To rescue homeless and destitute boys and girls who, unless removed to a Catholic Home, will certainly lose their faith.

All applications for admission of children to the Homes, and all donations and subscriptions for the maintenance of the children, will be most gratefully received by the Honorary Secretary and Treasurer,

THE REV. GEORGE V. HUDSON,
Coleshill, Birmingham.

ST. MARGARET'S SETTLEMENT,

44 Union Road, Rotherhithe, S.E.

This Settlement has been established for ladies who wish to work among the poor in South London, where the poverty, spiritual and temporal, is at least as great, if less widely known than in the East End. Ladies who are able to stay at the Settlement can be accommodated for longer or shorter periods; and suitable work can be found for those who cannot afford the time for residence, but are willing to give their services on specified days or evenings of the week.

The works, which are carried on with the approval of the Bishop of Southwark, and under the direction of the Rector of the Mission, comprise: Visiting the Sick and Poor, Instruction for the Sacraments, Management of Mothers' Meetings, Men's Club, Girls' Club, Clothing Club, Sewing Class, &c.

St. Margaret's Settlement is conveniently situated, about five minutes' walk from Rotherhithe Station, which can be reached by underground railway in about three-quarters of an hour from Victoria Station, from where the trains run every half-hour.

The Settlement house is large, and can accommodate four or five ladies. There is a private Chapel, where the Blessed Sacrament is reserved, and where Mass is said once a week.

A large Club Room adjoins the Settlement, where all the meetings, clubs, and classes are held, so that no going out in the streets at night is necessary.

The terms for residence are 20/- per week.

Ladies wishing to join the work, or willing to help it by gifts of money, clothes, &c., may apply to Miss BAYLIS, 44 Union Road, Rotherhithe, or to Mrs. JAMES HOPE, Herons' Ghyll, Uckfield.

ST. MARY'S HOME FOR WORKING GIRLS,

(CONVENT OF MARIE AUXILIATRICE),

26 Bow-road, London, E.

Under the Patronage of the Cardinal Archbishop of Westminster.

"I very heartily approve this appeal of the Sisters of Marie-Auxiliatrice for their work for the East-End of London. They undertook the work at my special request, and with great promptness and goodwill. May the blessing of God be upon all who help them." HENRY EDWARD, Cardinal Archbishop.

"I earnestly recommend the appeal made by the Sisters of Marie-Auxiliatrice for the great and populous district in the East-End of London which they inhabit. These Sisters have given themselves, not to the care of Catholics who are provided for by others, but to such members of the population as are entirely neglected, and seem to be 'without God in the world.' They are engaged in a lowly but most meritorious work of 'rescue and salvage.' They deserve support of all who profess reverence and love for our common humanity; of all who believe that Our Lord Jesus Christ is the Healer and Saviour of human society."

May 1st, 1893. HERBERT CARDINAL VAUGHAN,
Archbishop of Westminster.

"We gladly renew the approbation granted by our predecessor and earnestly beg God's blessing on this good work."

May 31st, 1908. ✠ FRANCIS, Abp. of Westminster.

This House is established in order to benefit the Working Classes by offering them the means of moral, social, and religious improvement. This is attained by training up Girls in habits of work, order, neatness and cleanliness, and by impressing upon their minds sound principles that will make better Christians and creditable members of society, and give every hope of their becoming excellent women and good mothers.

Girls wishing to be taught and trained are received on very easy terms. They can learn needlework, laundry work, ironing or house work; so that when they leave the House they will have the means of gaining their livelihood, and be better fitted for domestic life.

A portion of the House is set apart for Girls who are employed during the day in work, and can be lodged on the premises. Mothers' meetings are held here and also evening classes for girls. On Sunday afternoons both boys and girls are assembled for recreation and instruction. As the work cannot be self-supporting and the greater part of the cost of building the Home and the Laundry has still to be met, donations and subscriptions, however small, will be thankfully received by the Reverend Mother, 26 Bow-road, E. Gifts of clothing, &c., will be most welcome. Donations and Subscriptions may also be sent to Messrs. Blount, Lynch, and Petre, 48, Albemarle Street, London, W.

PARK HOUSE CONVALESCENT AND NURSING INSTITUTION,

Waterloo, near Liverpool, Lancashire.

FOR LADIES ONLY.

This House was established in 1902, by the Sisters of the Augustinian Order (who have numerous similiar Institutions), for the treatment of Medical and Surgical Patients who require skilled private nursing or a course of medical treatment.

Convalescent patients and those suffering from chronic nervous disorders are also admitted, and their daily routine carefully supervised. Sufferers from contagious or mental diseases are not received.

The Sisters are thoroughly proficient in nursing, and a course of Massage and Weir Mitchell treatment with electricity is given to those patients who require it.

The House is situated in one of the healthiest suburbs of Liverpool, which overlooks the estuary of the Mersey. It is six-and-a-half miles distant from the centre of the city, and can be easily reached by frequent trains from the Exchange Station to Waterloo. The grounds are extensive and picturesque, and are specially suitable for the patients' use.

Terms: 2 guineas a week and upwards.

In the Institution, which consists of two separate houses, there is a chapel, where the patients may attend daily Mass and Benediction twice a week.

In one of the Houses incurable cases can be admitted on special terms, either in private rooms or ward.

Lady Boarders are also received.

For further particulars, apply to the Rev. Mother.

ST. JOSEPH'S HOSPICE FOR THE DYING.

(UNDER THE CARE OF THE IRISH SISTERS OF CHARITY.)

Mare Street, Hackney, London, N.E.

Telephone : Dalston 470.

SUPPORTED BY VOLUNTARY CONTRIBUTIONS.

SUBSCRIPTIONS EARNESTLY SOLICITED.

Patrons:

H.E. THE CARDINAL ARCHBISHOP OF WESTMINSTER.
The DOWAGER MARCHIONESS OF BUTE.
The VISCOUNTESS ENCOMBE.
The DUKE OF NORFOLK.
LORD EDMUND TALBOT.
The MARQUISE D'HAUTPOUL.

The Hospice, or Home for the Dying, was opened with the view of affording every spiritual and temporal comfort, tender nursing, and loving care, to persons whose insufficient means and friendless condition prevent their being properly cared for when death draws near. The Hospice is not intended for chronic invalids, nor for the aged and infirm, but for patients, both male and female, whose advanced disease renders them ineligible for retention in General Hospitals.

Cheques to be made payable to CATHERINE CANNON, Superioress.

FORM OF BEQUEST FOR THE HOSPICE.

I give and bequeath to the Superioress for the time being, at the time of my death, of St. Joseph's Hospice for the Dying, Mare Street, Hackney, London, N.E., for the benefit of that Institution, the sum of £————, free of duty; and I declare that the receipt of such Mother Superior, or of the person for the time being purporting to be such Superior, shall be a good and sufficient discharge to my executors for the said legacy.

DOMINICAN CONVENT AND HOME FOR INCURABLES,

Dane Hills, Leicester.

This Home has been founded (1906) for female patients suffering from Chronic or Incurable diseases (mental and infectious excepted), and for convalescents requiring a bracing air together with home comforts. The Home is under the direct superintendence of the Dominican Sisters. Subscriptions and donations urgently needed to carry on this good work. For terms and particulars apply Rev. Mother Prioress, Dominican Convent, Dane Hills, Leicester.

WROTHAM HILL PARK SANATORIUM,

Wrotham, Kent.

The distinctive feature of Wrotham Hill Park is the treatment of Catholic Ladies and Gentlemen suffering from over-work, the strain of Social duties and other nervous disorders, in surroundings as far removed as possible from the atmosphere of the ordinary sanatorium or nursing home. Situated in one of the most beautiful parts of the garden county of England, 800 feet above sea level, the mansion stands in the midst of a fine park and is surrounded by a wide expanse of well kept lawns, shrubberies and gardens; large kitchen gardens and a full range of hot-houses provide fruit, vegetables and flowers for the patients, while milk, eggs and butter are supplied by the home farm. Six hundred acres of shooting are attached to the estate, and there is every facility for those who desire to hunt.

The leading nerve specialists trust their patients to the care of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Phillips who have had thirty years successful and continuous experience in the treatment of every class of nervous disorder. Living at Wrotham Hill Park amid the comforts and amenities of a well appointed country house, patients receive the most modern scientific treatment and improve in health with a rapidity which is impossible under old fashioned or less congenial conditions. Massage, electricity and Swedish exercises are features of the system; and when necessary Nauheim and other baths are provided.

Mr. Phillips, whose success in the treatment of nervous maladies is well known among the faculty, gives the closest personal attention to each case, and individual needs are carefully studied. In such surroundings as Wrotham Hill Park affords, and under the ideal conditions described, cures are rapidly effected in cases which show no improvement in ordinary medical Institutions and are incapable of treatment in the patients' own houses. It need not be said that any special treatment desired by the patients' own medical adviser is strictly carried out.

Apart from such supervision as their condition necessitates, residents are free from the irksome restrictions that are inseparable from sanatoria of the ordinary class.

The object of this Community is to nurse the sick at their own homes, whether rich or poor, Catholics or others.

For further particulars, apply to the Rev. Mother, as above.

LITTLE SISTERS OF THE ASSUMPTION.

NURSING SISTERS OF THE POOR.

The Little Sisters of the Assumption devote themselves exclusively to nursing gratuitously the sick poor in their own homes both day and night, whatever may be their religious belief. They take care of the home and of the children, and make themselves practically the servants of the poor and of their families, in order to win them to God.

They never accept any payment from their patients, not even their food; and the poorer the cases appealing to their charity, the more certain are they to have immediate attention. Although, when the case requires it, the patient is never left alone, the Sisters relieving each other, yet they never take up their abode in the houses of those they nurse, but always return to the Convent for meals and rest.

The Sisters also give religious instruction.

They have several houses abroad; two in New York. The mother-house is in Paris.

The postulate for English and Irish subjects is at 133 Lancaster-road, Notting-hill.

Special Prayers and Communions are offered up by the community for all their Benefactors, and for the intentions recommended to them verbally or by letter; and they also ask their sick and poor to pray for them.

The Sisters, in returning grateful thanks to all their kind benefactors, continue to make an earnest appeal to their goodness and generosity; as going only to the poor, from whom they accept absolutely nothing, they have to depend entirely upon the aid of those who are charitable for their means of subsistence and of carrying on their beloved work.

Subscriptions and donations, also food and all kinds of clothing, will be most gratefully received by the Superioress, 14 Wellington-road, London, E.; 133 Lancaster-road, Notting-hill, London, W.; 6 Earl-street, Westminster, S.W.; 7 Chapel Field-road, Norwich; and 45, Queen-street, Chester.

SECULAR CLERGY NEW COMMON FUND,

Established in 1803.

Administrators: Very Rev. Canon Egan, Very Rev. Canon Carter, Right Rev. Monsignor Canon Ward, Right Rev. Monsignor Doubleday, Very Rev. Canon Watson.

This Fund helps to support the Aged and Infirm Priests of the Dioceses of Westminster, Southwark, and Portsmouth.

Owing to the great increase in the number of priests in these three dioceses, there is an increasing demand on the funds of the Society on the part of the sick and aged priests. All Bequests and Donations to this Fund are invested in the names of the Trustees of the Fund, in safe securities, and the interest thereof is allotted to the sick members.

The Administrators earnestly appeal to those who have the means to contribute to this Fund, and thus assist those who have devoted their lives to the spiritual needs of Christ's Flock, but who are temporarily or permanently incapacitated from performing their sacred duties. Over 500 Masses are said annually for the living and deceased benefactors of the fund.

Subscriptions and donations may be sent to the Treasurer, the Very Rev. Canon Egan, The Presbytery, High Road, Chiswick, W.

The following Form of Bequest is recommended :—

"I give and bequeath to Canon Edmund F. Egan, or to the Treasurer for the time being of the Secular Clergy New Common Fund, the sum of £ , free of legacy duty, to be raised and paid by and out of my personal estate, to be applied towards carrying out the charitable designs of the fund."

INFIRM SECULAR CLERGY SOCIETY OF THE DIOCESE OF NEWPORT.

This Society has for its object the relief of Secular Priests belonging to the diocese, who from age or infirmity have become incapable of continuing their labours. There are comparatively few in this diocese who are in a position to contribute largely to the fund; an appeal is therefore made to Catholics generally, in the hope that they will give a generous support to this pressing charity. Two Masses are offered by each member annually for all benefactors, besides one specially, on their decease for those who have given 10*l.* or more. The committee consists of the following :—The Right Rev. Monsignor O'Reilly, V.G., Bishop's House, Llanishen, Cardiff; Rev. Daniel Hallahan, Tredegar; Rev. W. H. Brady, Grangetown, Cardiff; Rev. J. Exton, Llanarth; Rev. A. E. Sutherland, Aberdare; to whom, or to the Secretary, Rev. H. Irvine, Mountain Ash, S. Wales, donations and bequests can be made.

SHREWSBURY SECULAR CLERGY FUND.

This Fund has been established for the support of the infirm and superannuated Clergy of the diocese of Shrewsbury, and hence it commends itself to the charity of the Catholic public. In return, Mass is said monthly by each of the clergy (now about 70) who are members of the Fund for the benefactors both living and dead. Any person may become a benefactor by a donation of 10*l.*, for which forty special Masses will be said ; or by a donation of 5*l.*, for which twenty special Masses will be said ; or by a smaller contribution (not less, however, than 1*l.*), which will entitle the donor to share in the monthly Masses for ever. The special Masses will be said at once, or deferred until the death of the donor, as he or she may direct.

Other particulars may be had by application to the Treasurer, Rev. C. Giles, Newport, Salop ; or to the Secretary, Rev. J. H. Roche, St. Joseph's, Stockport.

Form of Legacy to the Fund.

I bequeath to the Rev. Chichele Giles, of Newport, Salop, Treasurer of the Society called the "Shrewsbury Secular Clergy Fund," or to the Treasurer of the same for the time being, the sum of £ , free of legacy duty, for the benefit of that Fund ; and I earnestly hope that the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass will be offered for the repose of my soul : but I do declare that this expression of my hope shall not be construed as a condition or trust attached to the same Legacy and that the compliance with this my hope shall not be deemed necessary to give effect to the same Legacy.

THE YORKSHIRE BRETHREN INFIRM SECULAR CLERGY FUND.

President—Very Rev. Canon Worthy, St. Mary's, Selby.

Treasurer—Very Rev. Canon Glover, 16 Vernon Road, Harrogate.

Secretary—Rev. F. G. Wood, Cragwood, Rawdon, nr. Leeds.

The dioceses of Leeds and Middlesbrough have one common Fund (The Yorks Brethren Fund) for the support of the Secular Clergy, who are Members of the Fund, and who through infirmity of age, or sickness, are incapable of performing missionary duties.

Any person may become a benefactor of the Fund by a donation of £10, for which forty masses will be said ; or by a donation of £5, for which twenty masses will be said ; or by a smaller donation for which a proportionate number of masses will be said, and which will entitle the Benefactor to share in the monthly masses for ever.

Every priest who is a Member of the Fund, offers the Holy Sacrifice once in each month for all Benefactors living and dead. The number of monthly masses at present offered for all Benefactors is 200.

THE SECULAR CLERGY FUND FOR THE DIOCESE OF HEXHAM AND NEWCASTLE,

CALLED

THE NORTHERN BRETHREN'S FUND.

ESTABLISHED 250 YEARS.

SUPERIORS:

Rev. A. Magill, Brooms, Leadgate, Co. Durham.

Very Rev. J. Canon Stark, St. Mary's, Hexham.

Very Rev. W. Canon Brown, Old Elvet, Durham.

Treasurer and Secretary:

Rev. W. Smith, St. Hilda's, Southwick, Sunderland.

This Fund has for its objects the relief and maintenance of Secular Priests belonging to the Diocese of Hexham and Newcastle, who, from sickness, age, or infirmity have become incapable of continuing their Missionary labours.

It is supported partly by the subscriptions of its Members, the Clergy, and partly by the benefactions of the charitable.

Each Member says one Mass monthly for its living and deceased Benefactors, so that upwards of 1500 Masses are offered up each year for this intention.

Persons may become Benefactors by a donation or bequest free of legacy duty of £10 or more; thus helping to make provision for those "who have borne the burden of the day and the heats" in their service, and at the same time availing themselves of the benefits of the Holy Sacrifice of the Altar.

In addition to the 1500 Masses said each year, 40 Masses will be offered specially for the donor on his or her decease. Benefactions may also be made in behalf of the deceased.

Pope Leo XIII., by a Rescript dated 8th June, 1890, granted:—

1.—To the Members and Benefactors, for ever, a Plenary Indulgence at the hour of death, provided they invoke, at least in their heart, the Holy Name of Jesus.

2.—On behalf of all deceased Members and Benefactors for ever, the favour of the "Privileged Altar" for every Mass offered up for them according to the Rules of the Fund.

The Administrators earnestly appeal to the faithful on behalf of this Charity, which preserves their devoted Clergy from want in sickness and old age, after they have spent their health in their apostolic labours.

THE NORTHAMPTON CLERGY FUND

FOR THE SICK AND DISABLED SECULAR CLERGY OF THE DIOCESE OF NORTHAMPTON.

The Diocese of Northampton, with its seven counties, covering an area of 7,000 square miles, while geographically the most extensive of all the dioceses of England, labours under the marked disadvantages of numerical inferiority of Catholic population and dearth of material resources.

This may be accounted for by economic causes; the almost total absence of large centres of industry, with the result that, with few exceptions, the Missions are in small country towns and villages, where the flock is but too often small, scattered, and poor. Some of these Missions could not be carried on without external aid, collected by the zeal of the Pastor, whose income, always meagre, often uncertain, borders on Apostolic Poverty, and precludes any provision against the evil day of sickness and permanent disablement.

To the piety of a past generation is due the inception of the Northampton Sick and Disabled Secular Clergy Fund, the administrators of which earnestly solicit Subscriptions and Donations. They realize that this Fund has not increased in proportion to the number of Missions and Priests for whom it is intended to provide, and they fear that unless the charitable laity help them to increase these resources they will soon fail to provide adequately for the growing demands made on the Fund.

One Mass is offered every year by each Member of the Fund for Benefactors living and dead; and at the Death of every Subscriber of £10 and upwards each Member of the Fund offers up Mass for the repose of his, or her, soul.

Any of the Faithful Departed may be made a Benefactor of the Fund by friends giving in his or her name a Benefaction of £10.

Subscriptions will be gratefully received by

THE VERY REVEREND M. CANON DWANE,
Treasurer,
Lynford Presbytery,
Mundford,
Norfolk.

LANCASHIRE INFIRM SECULAR CLERGY FUND.

President.—Very Rev. Alfred Canon Snow, Aughton, Ormskirk.

Treasurer—Rev. W. Smith, Little Crosby, Liverpool.

Secretary.—Right Rev. Mgr. William Hill, Samlesbury, Preston.

The Dioceses of Liverpool and Salford have one Common Fund for the support of the Secular Clergy, who are members of the Fund, and who through infirmity of age or sickness are incapable of performing missionary duties. A benefactor is entitled to forty special Masses for each £10 he contributes or bequeaths (free of legacy duty) to the Fund. He can, at his option, have these Masses said at the time of payment, or deferred to a future time, as, for instance, till his death, or he can have half the number said immediately and the remaining half deferred.

Every priest who is a Member of the Fund offers the Holy Sacrifice once in every month for all Benefactors and Members, living and dead. The number of Members is now over four hundred, so that Benefactors annually have a share in some five thousand Masses. Donors of less than £10 share in the monthly Masses, but are not entitled to any special Masses.

Further particulars may be had on application to any of the above-named Officers of the Fund.

BIRMINGHAM SECULAR CLERGY FUND.

Administrator—Rev. J. M. Flynn, Burton-on-Trent.

Secretary—Very Rev. James B. Canon Keating, St. Austin's, Stafford.

This Fund has for its object the support of the secular clergy of the Diocese, who, on account of age or infirmity, are no longer able to continue their Missionary labours. Any person may become a benefactor by a donation of £10; or he may make another, whether living or dead, a benefactor, by a similar donation on his behalf. Eighty Masses are offered for each benefactor, and these may be said, at his option, either before or after his death. An ANNUAL MASS is also offered by each member of the Association for all the benefactors of the Fund, LIVING OR DEAD.

PLYMOUTH SECULAR CLERGY FUND.

This Fund was established in 1861 for the relief of those Priests of the diocese of Plymouth who, from age or infirmity, become incapable of fulfilling their duties. It is supported partly by annual subscriptions from the Clergy themselves, and partly by donations from charitable persons. Considering the poverty of the diocese, an appeal is made to the Catholic public to contribute to this very necessary Fund. Benefactors of 10*l.* or more are by the Rules entitled, for each such donation, to one Mass offered by each member of the Society, either at once, or, if preferred, immediately after death; four Masses are said every year for all Benefactors, living and dead, by each member. Rev. J. S. Burns (Falmouth) is secretary, and the Rev. W. Middleton (Bideford) is treasurer, to whom payments should be made.

CLIFTON SECULAR CLERGY FUND.

This is the only fund (1) for the assistance of Priests temporarily disabled by sickness; (2) for the support of those permanently incapacitated through age or infirmity.

In addition to an annual Mass for all benefactors, living and dead, each member of the Society undertakes the following obligations: Upon the death of a donor or subscriber of £10, one Mass; £25, two Masses; £50 or upwards, four Masses; £1000 or upwards, one annual Mass.

Rev. G. BROWNE, D.D., Wells, Somerset, Secretary and Treasurer.

BOARDING SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LADIES,

(Directed by the Ursuline Nuns),

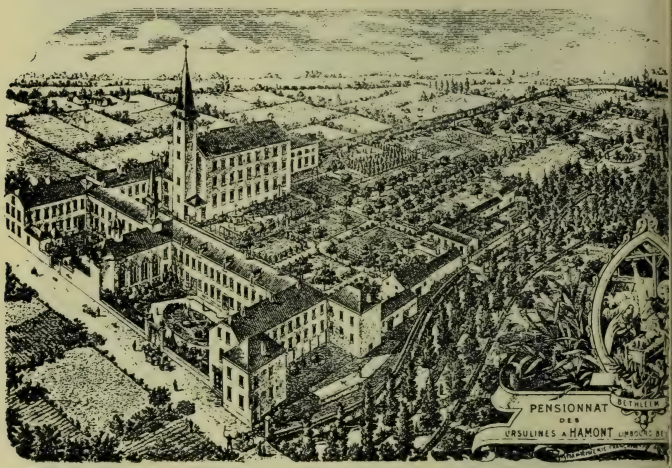
Under the distinguished patronage of the Lord Bishop of Liége.



This well-known Convent is situated in one of the most healthy parts of Belgium. It has recently been entirely re-built and fitted with hot-water pipes, baths, etc. Extensive grounds surround the Convent, which, together with Skating-rink and Tennis-courts, form a delightful resort for the pupils during recreation hours.

The religious training of the students is the primary care of the nuns, while every effort is made to develop those qualities essential to the happiness of home life and society.

The curriculum embraces all branches of a higher English education, with special facilities for acquiring the French and German languages, which are taught by natives. French is constantly spoken.

The pension is £20 per annum, which includes laundry and the use of table and bed linen. Shorthand, typewriting, music, drawing and painting are extras, as well as medical attendance if required.

A direct railway runs from Antwerp to Hamont, and, if desired, a lady will meet children at Antwerp.

An extensive modern housekeeping section has now been added to the Convent for the use of students of 16 years and upwards. In this department pupils are taught every branch of household management: Cooking and preserving, hygiene, laundry, dressmaking (including the use of a sewing machine), etc. The spacious building erected is fitted with most up-to-date appliances, enabling the pupils to practice daily the discharge of different domestic duties.

The pension to include in the ordinary school course the above Domestic Training is £33.

Dear Sir.—In 1901, I bought one of your "Thermal Cabinet Baths," and have had on an average one bath a week ever since. Previously, from the age of nine (when I had Rheumatic Fever) up to forty-two, I was more or less in the doctor's hands suffering from Rheumatism in various parts of the body. I was also never free from indigestion. Since using your Bath I have not had a doctor once, and have now perfect digestion. I have every reason to be thankful for having bought one of your Baths. Please send me 5/- bottle of your Liquid Sulphur.—
Yours truly, (Signed) H. J. LOVEJOY (Rev.).

Vapour Baths energise, invigorate, vitalise they are a luxury beyond the conception of all those who have not taken them by means of the Century Cabinet. Scientifically constructed, self-purifying, strong, compact; folded, it occupies only two-inch space; has head steamer whereby the head and face get same treatment as the body. The top is constructed of four flaps, patented; regulates temperature at will of bather.

The Century Cabinet is sold complete with Heater and Vaporiser at 35/-, 50/-, 63/-, and 70/- (Cheaper Cabinets, 25/-). We allow 30 days' trial, to be returned at our expense if, after testing, it is not found as represented. We make this offer so that you shall be sure of having the BEST BATH CABINET MADE. Write for Catalogue No. 702, and Samples of Goods sent, also valuable book: "Health, Strength, Hygiene," and Medical Testimony. Thousands of Century Cabinets in use. FREE Agents wanted. Please mention Catholic Directory.

THE LATEST AND BEST BOOKS

PUBLISHED BY

BENZIGER BROTHERS,

Printers to the Holy Apostolic See.

CINCINNATI. | NEW YORK: 36-38, Barclay Street. | CHICAGO.

FOR SALE AT ALL CATHOLIC BOOK STORES.

Saints and Places. By John Ayscough. 12mo, cloth, illustrated, net, 6s.

The present volume must certainly add a laurel to the fame of its author. An extensive traveller, his descriptions of the places he has visited, and the Saints that they recall, are told with a delightful freshness entirely foreign to the usual pedantic volumes of travel. His pictures are vivid, and the manner of painting, brilliant.

Cases of Conscience. For English-speaking Countries. By Rev. Thomas J. Slater, S.J. Two volumes, 8vo, cloth, net, 14s.

"This will prove a most invaluable manual, not only for the divinity student, but also the town priest, to whom, from time to time, cases of conscience must invariably turn up."—The Catholic Times.

A Manual of Moral Theology. For English-speaking Countries. By Rev. Thomas J. Slater, S.J. Two volumes, 8vo, cloth, net, 22s.

"The professional reader will hail with satisfaction the precise and definite rules formulated with reference to particular points, such as, for example, the intention for Mass, the Confession of doubtful sins, etc. The lay reader will derive valuable assistance on subjects that always interest the Catholic, or concerning which accurate and full information is needed at the present moment, in the section devoted to Marriage, certain portions of Penance, etc."—Catholic Book Notes.

Spiritual Considerations. By Rev. H. Reginald Buckler, O.P. 12mo, cloth, net, 5s.

"Every book from the pen of Father Buckler deserves a reading. He makes pious readings, that bugbear to so many souls, a real pleasure."—The Pilot.

More Short Spiritual Readings for Mary's Children. By Madame Cecilia. 12mo, net, 5s.

This is a companion volume to "Short Spiritual Readings for Mary's Children," and is written on the same plan. It contains appropriate readings on Christian Virtues, the Sacraments, Lenten Thoughts, the Spiritual Life, and on miscellaneous matters—all written for Children of Mary in a clear and simple style, fascinating and tructive

Up in Ardmuirland. By Rev. Michael Barrett, O.S.B. 12mo, cloth, net, 5s. 6d.

The scene of this story is laid in a little village of Scotland, among simple-living Catholic people. The pastor of this flock has recorded the doings of his people and in some instances the story of their lives, with the result that we have a delightful book.

The Little Cardinal. By Olive Katharine Parr. 12mo, cloth, net, 3s. 9d.

"The Little Cardinal" is a most absorbing novel in which piety, pathos, and humour are happily blended. Miss Parr's former literary achievements give us an assurance that any new work of hers will be found worth while. This book is no exception; on the contrary, it is the finest piece of work we have had from the pen of the author.

Agatha's Hard Saying. By Rosa Mulholland. 12mo, cloth, net, 3s. 9d.

"This is a book for men and women: a study in heredity, not obtruded in its dry, scientific aspect, but overlaid with all the romance of the love of man and woman when they love their best."—The Republic.

Back to the World. By M. Champol. Translated by L. M. Leggatt. 12mo, cloth, net, 5s. 6d.

As a psychological study "Back to the World" is a powerful and moving tale of more than ordinary interest and significance. But as a narrative of conditions which obtain at the present day in France, the author has outdone himself in his keen and sympathetic treatment of a subject which has become a momentous problem no less than a lamentable condition.

Told in the Twilight. By Mother Mary Salome. 12mo, cloth, net, 2s. 9d.

"There is need of such books. Both in the family circle and in the Sunday School there is nothing for bringing home a good lesson like the story with a point. In this instance the author has done her work well. It is to be hoped that the book will circulate widely."—The Pilot.

Christ's Teaching Concerning Divorce in the New Testament. An Exegetical Study. By Rev. Francis E. Gigot, D.D. Dedicated by permission, to His Eminence John Cardinal Farley. 8vo, cloth, net, 6s.

"The reverend author has made a very helpful contribution to the literature of Divorce, and it certainly will not be his fault if the reader is not enabled to refute the false reasoning of advocates of this great modern evil who would even distort Christ's teachings to support their contentions."—Sacred Heart Review.

Pulpit Sketches. By Rev. A. A. Lambert, Missionary. 12mo, cloth, net, 5s.

This is a book of sketches or outlines of sermons. For each of the Sundays of the year is given a sermon outline which the preacher may fill up for himself, thus affording him a choice of subject and a suggested treatment which the many duties of an active ministry may often make most welcome.

By Right Rev. Jeremias Bonomelli, D.D., Translated by Right Rev. Thos. S. Byrne, D.D.

Christian Mysteries. By Right Rev. Jeremias Bonomelli, D.D. Translated by Right Rev. Thos. S. Byrne, D.D. Four volumes, cloth net, 20s.

The Road Beyond the Town and other Poems. By Rev. Michael Earls, S.J. 12mo, cloth, net, 5s.

"The Road Beyond the Town," is, in a certain sense, a record in song of a road of past years up to "The Wide World of My Town," when the author was ordained to the priesthood. The author's first volume of poetry is bound to be a great success, writes the late Father Matthew Russell, S.J., whose editorial pen had criticised verse and prose for over forty years.

Through the Desert. By Henryk Sienkiewicz. 12mo, cloth, with ten full-page illustrations by F. Schwormstädt, net, 5s. 6d.

"Through the Desert" should rank with "Robinson Crusoe" and "Treasure Island." It fully equals, if it does not surpass, these classics in interest, and ethically it is their superior."—REV. F. J. FINN. S.J., in the Catholic Telegraph.

The Tempest of the Heart. By Mary Agatha Gray. 12mo, cloth, illustrated, net, 3s. 9d.

"The Tempest of the Heart" is really one of the big books of the year, written by a gifted American woman who is fast winning fame.

The Wargrave Trust. By Christian Reid. 12mo, cloth, net. 3s. 9d.

"The author will probably be acknowledged to be the most accomplished writer of fiction among the Catholics of the United States. It will be a welcome addition to our libraries "—The Irish Monthly.

"We are delighted to see such practical and delightful school books from the Emerald Isle, for they prove that sound progress is being made there in the teaching of reading. . . . They are compiled upon scientific grounds. . . . Illustrations which pleasingly fit the text, and are numerous, bright, and excellent. . . . The little tales and verses are delightfully interesting. . . . English teachers should examine these books, and we feel confident they will not fail to appreciate them."—The Teacher.

THE YEAR BOOK PRESS SERIES OF UNISON AND PART SONGS.

Published in both Notations. Specially composed for this Series.

SOUND WHOLESOME WORDS set to Music by LEADING LIVING COMPOSERS.

(Sir Hubert Parry, Sir C. V. Stanford, Sir Walter Parratt, Sir Frederick Bridge, Dr. Walford Davies, Dr. C. H. Lloyd, John Ireland, T. F. Dunhill, Dr. Chas. Wood, &c., &c.)

These are exactly suitable for CATHOLIC SCHOOLS. The words are ALWAYS CAREFULLY CHOSEN. The Music is written by experts from an educational point of view.

The "St. George's, Windsor" Plays for Boys and Girls. Music edited by Sir Walter Parratt, M.V.O., Professor of Music, Oxford University, Mus. Doc. Words and Lyrics by F. Maynard Bridge, B.A.

The features of the Series are that the Plays are specially written for the purpose—WHOLESOME AND AMUSING—not too difficult or too long, and specially arranged for performance WITH OR WITHOUT MUSIC. They have stood the test of performance with success, and call only for simple scenery, staging and costumes.

MACMILLAN'S NEW BOOKS.

THE SACRED SHRINE. A Study of the Poetry and Art of the Catholic Church.

By YRJÖ HIRN, Professor of Æsthetic and Modern Literature at the University of Finland, Helsingfors. 8vo. 14s. net.

NATION.—"'The Sacred Shrine' is an important and even a memorable work. In its conception a study in æsthetics, it has developed into a treatise on comparative religion; in no book available to English readers has the secret of Catholicism found such a true expression as here."

QUEEN.—"By showing the vital relation of the Catholic Arts and Crafts to Catholic faith, Prof. Hirn has given us something very much more than a new and powerful interpretation of certain phases of art in the Middle Ages; he has permitted us a valuable new glimpse into actual history."

THE HEART OF ST. FRANCIS OF SALES, revealed by his contemporaries. 4th Edition. Price 6d. net.

A MONTHLY EXERCISE, PREPARATION FOR DEATH. Fourth Edition. Price 3½d. net. Between thirty and forty thousand copies of this book have been sold in the English, French, and German languages.

LIFE OF BLESSED MARGARET MARY ALACOQUE. Edited in French by the Sisters of the Visitation of Holy Mary of Paray-le-Monial, translated by the Sisters of the Visitation of Holy Mary of Roselands, Walmer, Kent, with Preface by the Rev. Joseph Rickaby, S.J. Price, 2s. 6d.

"Mysticism and the Sacred Heart! Two names which appeal to a wide circle of readers! Blessed Margaret Mary was a mystic of the first order. She was likewise the humble instrument used by Divine Providence for spreading devotion to the Adorable Heart. Interesting details hitherto kept back, are revealed for the first time in this 'Life.' The authority for them is Blessed Margaret Mary's own writings. Without these latest revelations no one's knowledge of the Beata is complete."

SHORT ILLUSTRATED LIFE OF BLESSED MARGARET MARY ALACOQUE. 2d. each, 1s. 6d. per dozen.

THE HEART OF BLESSED MARGARET MARY ALACOQUE, offered as a model to pious persons. Thirty-one considerations for every day in the month. 6d.

The Catholic Times

The Leading Catholic Journal of the World.

EVERY FRIDAY. ONE PENNY.

THE Catholic Press is, with the pulpit, the main bulwark of the Church for the defence of religious truth and the most effective instrument of progress. It exposes misrepresentations, instructs the faithful and stimulates them to action, is a watchful guardian of every Catholic interest—in a word is, as Pope Leo XIII. called it, "a perpetual mission." In this apostolate the Catholic Times has always been foremost amongst the Catholic Journals of the world. No home desiring to know what is being done in the Catholic world can afford to be without the Catholic Times.

¶ One of the chief raisons d'être for the existence of this Review is the defence of historic Christianity against the organised onslaughts of its adversaries and vilifiers. It is, therefore, with confidence that THE OXFORD & CAMBRIDGE REVIEW appeals to Catholics to strengthen it by their support and sympathy.

MY FIRST CONFESSION & COMMUNION BOOK.

A Manual of Prayers and Guide for the early Communion of Children.

This little prayer-book is admittedly the best of all, being published for our dear children making their first Holy Communion. The prayers and meditations are entirely adapted to their childlike comprehension, and it is written in a most warm and devotional style, the printing being clear and very legible. The bindings are very handsome. All particulars can be had from—

THE LOVE OF JESUS:

Or Visits to the Blessed Sacrament for Every Day of the Month. Price 1s. 6d.

BY THE RIGHT REV. MONSIGNOR GILBERT.

46,000 Copies of this work have been published in England, and 10 Editions in the United States. It has been translated into French, German, Italian, and Portuguese. When first published it was received with a chorus of approval and welcome by the Press, both Catholic and Protestant. The following are extracts from reviews:—"It is an eloquent book. It speaks to the soul and discovers an acquaintance with man's heart, its sorrows and its joys, hopes and fears, which can only have been gained by one who has sounded the depths of his own nature by the aid of the Divine Spirit." "It is full of pious thoughts and holy aspirations with meditative reflections of great beauty. . . . A very commendable volume." "A most charming book. We have seen many books of Visits, but never one which has pleased us so much. When this book is known, it is sure to be appreciated and loved." Time and the public have abundantly proved the truth of these extracts.

To be obtained from all Catholic Booksellers.

We are requested by the Rev. P. HICKEY to bring to the notice of our clients the Testimonial as below, which was given to us absolutely unsolicited.

ST. CATHERINE'S, ANDOVER STREET, SHEFFIELD, April 23rd, 1906.

Dear Mr. Thompson,—I received the Chalice all right, and I am most pleased with it. For the price I do not think it can be beaten, and for convenient size and shape it is all that can be desired The Bishop expressed his admiration at this specimen of your work. I wish you every success, and remain, yours sincerely,

Rev. P. HICKEY.

We beg to notify that all our Chalices and Ciboria are all soldered together in one piece, except those which have False Cups; these are all in one piece, except the Cup, which is obliged to be screwed to enable the False Cup to be fitted; therefore our Chalices and Ciboria cannot come loose in any way whatever.

Latest Analysis of our Celebrated Altar Wines: 1911

Gentlemen,—We beg to report that on the 9th November we visited your cellars, and took samples from the bins at our own pleasure, of ten kinds of Altar Wines which we found there, namely:—

Malaga Altar Wine — Rich.	6. Siracusa.
ditto — Dry.	7. Malvasia.
ditto Medium.	8. Premonstratensian Altar.
Vino de Sacramento — Dry.	9. Monferrato.
ditto Medium.	10. Aragon Muscatel.

These we have submitted to careful Chemical Analysis, and as a result, have pleasure in testifying that all of them conform to the character of well-prepared, genuine, high-class natural Wines.

There is no sign whatever that the Wines have been subjected to treatment in any form, other than that for the production of genuine natural Wines.

Appleyard's Patent Hand Power Dasher Washer (Gas heated).

Copy of Testimonials :

September 11th, 1911.

Mr. Appleyard.

Sir,—I am very well satisfied with your Washing Machine heated by gas, and find it is much cheaper and cleaner, less worry, wash-house is much dryer because there is no steam about, and my clothes seem to be washed better as it seems to get hotter. I have done away with my steam boiler and am heating all by gas.

Yours, LEE SHAW.

Dailey Laundry,
140, Moss Lane East,
Moss Side, Manchester.

Mr. J. Appleyard.

Sir,—Having purchased one of your Washing Machines some time ago (gas heated) I cannot speak too highly of same. I have had other machines, but nothing to equal the above ; the clothes came out of it in first-class condition, with very little trouble.

I am quite satisfied, in fact I feel proud of it and would not be without it, and I have recommended it on many an occasion, which I know you have had orders through the recommendation.

Yours, etc., JOHN HUDSON.

Appleyard's Patent Hand Power Ironing and Glossing Machine.

To Mr. J. Appleyard. May 2nd, 1904.

Dear Sir,—We have used your Hand Power Collar and Cuff Ironing Machine for over 12 months and it has given us great satisfaction. It will do everything you said it would and we have made it do more. We duly regret we delayed so long in getting one of them and we could not do without one now. Hoping you will have a very large demand for the machine, for no laundry can be complete without.

We are, yours truly,
A. DOWBAKIN.

The Laundry,
Street Lane, Gilderstom.

To Mr. J. Appleyard.

September 26th, 1911.

Dear Sir,—I have had your representative calling on me on your behalf, and he was surprised when I told him we had one of Appleyard's Hand Power Ironing and Glossing Machines for 20 years, and has been working almost every day on collars and cuffs and various flat work. This machine was bought by Mr. Featherstone in 1891 when I was but 7 years of age, and the machine is still doing its work as well as ever. I should be pleased to show the machine at work to any of your likely purchasers.

= HEATING = = APPARATUS =

For all kinds of Buildings carried out with the latest improved form of Radiators and Sectional Boilers, also with High Pressure small bore pipes and furnace coil Boilers. . . This system of high pressure heating is very effective for heating all kinds of buildings and has the following advantages: . . . Costs less to instal as a large number of small rooms can be effectively heated with one small size pipe run round on two sides of a room.

COSTS LESS THAN HALF FOR FUEL.

We have heated several large Churches with the Monastery buildings attached thereto with one moderate size fire.

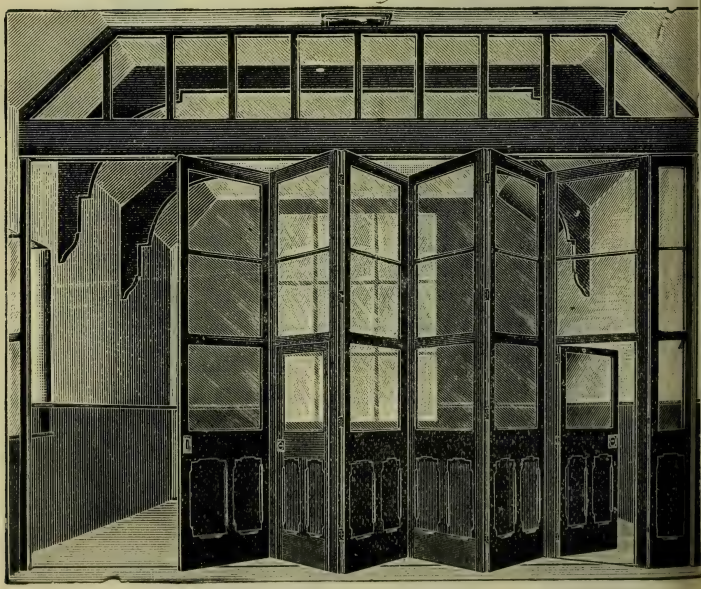
Parkfield Works, :: Alderson Road,

SHEFFIELD.

"Parkfield" FOLDING PARTITIONS

FOR DIVIDING SCHOOLROOMS, HALLS, &c.
ALSO FOR GARAGE FRONTS, &c,



Prices from 1/9 per square foot.

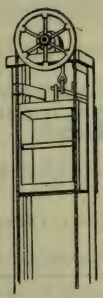
All carriages used are made entirely of steel, under my own personal supervision, and are ball-bearing, to prevent friction.

Twelve Reasons WHY

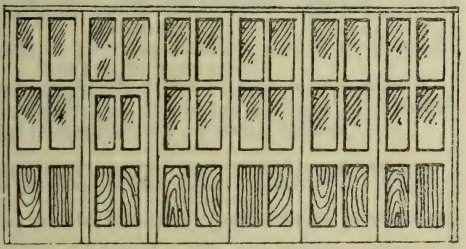
"The LUCAS"

Patent Folding Partitions

ARE MORE SIMPLE AND MORE EASILY WORKED THAN ANY OTHER:



Lucas's Patent Self-sustaining Hand Lifts. Send for Catalogue.



We are Specialists in Folding and Sliding Partitions and Hand Lifts of every description.

1.—Any number of leaves may be hinged continuously together and fold all to one side.
2.—Part may fold to each side, either similarly swivelled or otherwise.
3.—No half leaf is required at the folding side.
4.—The swivel actions run upon the TOP of the rail, not at the bottom of the grooves.
5.—The swivel actions are only required upon alternate leaves, and may be placed in any position.
6.—The runner rail is easily kept free from dirt.
7.—No large beam or boxing is required at the top.
8.—The whole of the weight is carried on the floor (where especially desired they can be hung at the top).
9.—The swivel actions have steel ball and roller bearings.
10.—The top guide rollers are turned true, and revolve upon steel pins.
11.—They can be adapted to suit any possible circumstances.
12.—They can be easily fixed by any ordinary workman.

Dear Mr. Stuflesser,

I cannot refrain from sending you a few lines to express my great pleasure and satisfaction with the episcopal throne which you have erected in our Cathedral. The design is beautiful, and every detail has been worked out with a care and skill which approaches perfection. It is strong and stately, yet is full of lightness and grace, and you have earned my grateful thanks for the attention, skill, and patience which must have been given in every part to produce so perfect a work.

Believe me, my dear Sir,
Yours very sincerely

Purveyors of Beeswax Candles, &c., to Westminster Cathedral

BEESWAX CANDLES

FRANCIS TUCKER & CO. LD., in again publishing their annual Price List, desire to return their sincere thanks to their many esteemed Patrons for their kind support in the past, and to express the hope that they may receive a continuance of their patronage with a favourable recommendation to their friends.

FRANCIS TUCKER & CO. LD. have the honour of supplying Westminster Cathedral in addition to many other Cathedrals, Churches and Convents, and they formerly supplied their Eminences the late Cardinals Wiseman, Manning and Vaughan.

They have been renowned for nearly 200 years as the largest and most reliable makers of Church Candles, and they give an absolute guarantee (see page 5) that EACH of their "Percentage" Beeswax Candles (95%, 75%, 65%, 55%, 25%) actually contain the quantity of GENUINE BEESWAX stamped on it in accordance with the Resolutions of their Lordships the Bishops of England and Wales in Dec. 1906.

FRANCIS TUCKER & CO.'S prices, considering the undeniable quality of their manufactures, will be found to compare favourably with those of other makers.

Decree of the Sacred Congregation of Rites as to the Material of Candles for the Altar.

Nonnulli Sacrorum Antistites a Sacrorum Rituum Congregatione semel atque iterum reverenter postularunt: "An attenta etiam magna difficultate, vel veram ceram apum habendi, vel indebitas cum alia cera commixtiones eliminandi, candelae super Altaribus ponendae, omnino et integre ex cera apum esse debeant; an vero esse possint cum alia materia seu vegetali seu animali commixtae?"

Et Sacra Rituum Congregatio, in Ordinario Coetu die 29 Novembris hoc vertente anno in Vaticanum coadunato omnibus perpensis, una cum suffragio Commissionis Liturgicae anteacta decreta mitigando rescribere rata est: "Attenta asserta difficultate, Negative ad primam partem; Affirmative ad secundam, ut ad mentem. Mens, est, ut Episcopi pro viribus curent et cereus paschalis in aqua baptismali immergentus et duae candelae in Missis accendendae, sint ex cera apum, saltem in maxima parte; aliarum vero candelarum, quae supra Altaribus ponendae sunt, materia in maiori vel notabili quantitate ex eadem cera sit oportet. Qua in re parochi aliique rectores ecclesiarum et oratoriorum tuto stare poterunt normis a respectivis Ordinariis traditis, nec privati sacerdotes Missam celebraturi de qualitate candelarum anxie inquirere tenentur."

Atque ita rescripsit die 14 Decembris, 1904.

COPY OF OFFICIAL NOTIFICATION OF RESOLUTIONS OF THEIR LORDSHIPS THE BISHOPS OF ENGLAND AND WALES.

ALTAR CANDLES.

Attention is called to the fact that the Bishops of England and Wales, at a meeting held on December 4th, 1906, resolved as follows:—

"The Bishops, having before them the Rescript of the S. Congregation of Rites, of December 14th, 1904, resolved to instruct the Clergy and others that the Paschal candle, the two candles for Low Mass, the six candles for High Mass, and the candles obligatory for Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, must contain at least 65 per cent. of genuine beeswax, and all other candles placed upon the Altar at least 25 per cent.

They decided to direct that all candles, to be used as above, be guaranteed by the makers, and bear stamped upon them the percentage of beeswax they are so guaranteed to contain."

These decisions will come into force throughout the Province not later than March 25th, 1907, and we desire them to be observed in this Diocese with as little delay as possible.

TWENTIETH VISIT

I HEREBY CERTIFY that on the 27th day of Sept. 1912 I called at the Works of Messrs. Francis Tucker & Co., Putney, and took at random from their stock and also from the factory in the course of manufacture, samples of different Wax Candles, and have subjected the same to analysis

I FURTHER CERTIFY that the percentage of Genuine Beeswax contained in them is in accordance with that stamped on each candle, namely:-

First quality	Not less than	95%	of Genuine Beeswax
"A" "	"	75%	"
"P.M." "	"	65%	"
"No.1." "	"	55%	"
"D" "	"	25%	"

As I am calling periodically and without previous notice at Messrs Tucker & Co's Works, for the purpose of taking samples for examination, the purchasers of the candles have every guarantee that the latter are of proper composition.

Palms. Special attention given to orders for Palms (Particulars and Price List on application). As only a limited number of Palms are imported FRANCIS TUCKER & CO. LD. trust that intending customers will place their orders some weeks before Palm Sunday, as the same will be executed in rotation.

In view of frequent enquiries from Customers, FRANCIS TUCKER and CO. LD. deem it advisable to publish the following:—

Memorandum on the Lighting and General Treatment of Wax and other Candles.

Every candle is liable to overflow or "gutter" if the wick is broken off or damaged before re-lighting. Also, if the rim of the "cup" is pared, or damaged, say, by the extinguisher. The common practice therefore, of trimming candles, for the sake of a tidy appearance, is to be condemned, however praiseworthy the object may be. This will be understood when it is explained that the efficiency in the burning of a candle depends on the correct absorbing power of the wick; or to be more precise, on the exact maintenance of the ratio between the wick and the body of the candle. For instance, if the wick burns too freely (is too large and absorbent), the candle will be liable to smoke* and, moreover, consume too quickly—in fact, waste. If again the wick is too small (say shortened by smouldering or being broken off, or damaged by the extinguisher, or too thin or tightly plaited) it will not consume the wax fast enough as the latter is melted, and consequently the candle overflows or "gutters." In other words, a good candle is one whose wick is rightly proportioned for the work it has to do, and which, in burning, regulates itself.

FRANCIS TUCKER & CO. LD., having been nearly two hundred years in the trade, have, by careful study and long experiment, gained valuable experience in this respect, and are therefore able to advise their customers as to the best treatment a candle should receive.

Briefly, this is as follows :—

(A) Beware of damaging the wick or the cup of the candle with the extinguisher, which should be kept clean and dry. Indeed, if possible, it is always preferable to blow out a candle, especially a large one, or if an extinguisher is used it should be larger than the diameter of the candle.

(B) Never break off the charred wick before re-lighting.

(C) Never trim or pare the cup before re-lighting, or it will overflow. (A good candle burns with a deep dry cup.)

(D) No candle will burn well in a draught.

(E) Moisture applied to stop smouldering is fatal; the only reliable method of doing this is to apply a piece of wax (any scrap or candle end will answer the purpose) to the tip of the wick just before blowing out the candle. Indeed this is always to be recommended in extinguishing the larger candles, as they are very liable to smoulder, and, as already explained, no candle will burn well if the wick is reduced by smouldering or otherwise. After being extinguished the wick should be allowed to cool or "set" in an upright or only slightly curved position.

Nota Bene.—As Church Candles (with the exception of those specially made for Quarant Ore) are of necessity constantly being extinguished and re-lit, it is necessary (in order to fairly test the number of hours a candle will burn) to light and extinguish it quite a dozen times.

A bad candle (or one not specially made for extinguishing and re-lighting) will then be found to gutter and cause waste, though, if not extinguished and re-lit, it would last longer than a free burning candle which does not gutter on re-lighting.

The test should be carefully applied when comparing our candles with foreign ones.

Our Quarant Ore candles are an instance of this. These candles are made with special wicks which burn with a small flame, and are not intended to be re-lit, but to burn "right away." It will be found that if burnt side by side with our ordinary Altar Candles, the Quarant Ore will last longer and give a smaller flame than the former, but if extinguished and re-lit the Quarant Ore will gutter whereas the ordinary Mass Candle will not.

* In large candles smoking cannot, however, at present be avoided, for technical reasons, which need not be here explained.

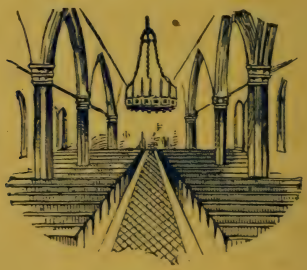
Corona Lights.



(Registered.)

FRANCIS TUCKER & CO. LD. beg to call particular attention to these Candles for Lighting Churches and Chapels, named "CORONA LIGHTS." As Samples are supplied Free of Charge on demand, they abstain from any allusion to the merits of these Candles, preferring that the Samples should testify to their Good Burning Properties and Handsome appearance. These Candles are manufactured in the usual sizes ; see page 13.

PRICE... ... ... 8d. PER LB.

For Terms, etc., see page 3.

Best Vegetable & Sanctuary Oils.

FRANCIS TUCKER & CO. LD. procure Oils of the finest description only, and to this it may be attributed that the demand is yearly increasing.

FRANCIS TUCKER & CO.'S BEST VEGETABLE OIL is the produce of a particular growth and the finest in quality that it is possible to obtain, is refined by a Special Process for use in Sanctuary Lamps, and is the most reliable Oil for burning with Guillon's Eight and Four Day Wicks (for which Francis Tucker & Co. have the sole agency), also for the Floating Wicks; see page 17. It is a speciality of their trade, and can be obtained only from FRANCIS TUCKER & CO. LD. or their appointed agents.

Store Cans for Sanctuary Oil, &c.

Specially recommended for the use of Priests and Laity, as they enable the Lamps to be trimmed without spilling, which often occurs when ordinary cans are used. Mess and annoyance are thus avoided.

Made in finest block tin, with tap and dripper, complete in the following sizes :—

To hold 4 gallons	11/6 each	nett.

A FEW USEFUL HINTS TO USERS OF SANCTUARY OILS.

To obviate the difficulty which is sometimes experienced in keeping the Sanctuary Lamp alight, FRANCIS TUCKER & CO. LD. venture to make the following suggestions :—

(1) When replenishing the lamps always see the wicks are dry and firmly fixed to the holder. The glasses and oil filler must be perfectly dry and clean, and no dregs or blacks from the wicks allowed to remain.

(2) On no account should water be put into the Sanctuary glass with the oil, or any other quality oil mixed with it.

(3) Never empty a fresh can of oil into the old can.

(4) Dregs from the Sanctuary glass should not be poured back into the can, or the oil will cease to do its work satisfactorily.

(5) As oil is easily affected by change or temperature, and likely to become chilled and thick, especially in Winter, it should be kept in a warm dry place (say 60° to 70°) and properly corked.

(6) For Altar purposes our Pure Vegetable Oil should always be used, and the wick tipped with oil before lighting. This oil is the finest quality it is possible to obtain, and we guarantee its purity. To this may be attributed the great increase in the demand yearly.

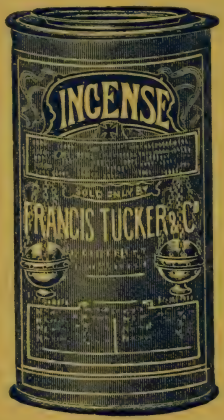
Fragrant Incense.

Of the Choicest Gums. Prepared only by FRANCIS TUCKER & CO. LD.

WE beg to call attention to this Incense, which is composed of carefully selected Gums, is very fragrant, and with ordinary care will not ignite when put into the Thurible, thus avoiding great danger and inconvenience. This circumstance gives it a preference, and has brought it into general favour with the Clergy.

N.B.—Customers are requested to refuse any tin supplied with the green wrapper or seal broken.



These tins are fitted with patent lids which will be found a great boon.

Household Candles

with Plain or Self-fitting Ends, to fit Candlesticks of any size

FRANCIS TUCKER & Co. LD. beg to state that the greatest care is taken in the selection of the materials used in the manufacture of the Registered Candles, and they can confidently recommend each variety as being most suitable for its purpose. They may be had with either plain ends or self-fitting ends. If required with plain ends the sizes are given in the list of moulded candles on page 13. The self-fitting ends are only made in 4, 6, 8, or 12 candles to the pound in the following lengths—4's are 12 inches long, 6's are 9¼ inches, 8's are 7½ inches, 12's are 5½ inches.

I strongly recommend my 95% Pure Beeswax Candles as being more conformable to the spirit of the Catholic Church, and more economical than any others.

They are only the same price as the 65% candles sold in England, but they burn 25, 30, and even 40% longer!

Patronised by Members of the English, Irish and Scottish Hierarchies; by the Cardinal Vicar and Bishops of France; and many hundreds of the Clergy and Convents of the British Isles.

DEAR SIR,

Some time ago I got from M. Desfossés some Altar Candles. My experience is that they last much longer than those I used to have formerly. Will you kindly order the following of the same quality (95 %).....

Yours very truly,

DEAR MR. KAVANAGH,

My account is now returned with cheque for settlement. The candles are all that could be desired, and burn splendidly. It gave me great pleasure to bring them under the notice of the priests at our last conference here.

With every best wish,
Yours sincerely in Xt.,

PRESBYTERY, ST. MARY'S ON THE QUAY, BRISTOL.

DEAR SIRS,

You will be pleased to learn that my Sacristan is very pleased with the candles which you recently supplied. They burned through our Quarant Ore without any guttering, in marked contrast with those of another firm with whom we had been previously dealing.

Yours truly,

REV. G. L. CAROLAN, S.J.

SANCTUARY OIL.

A User's Opinion of Our No. 1 Quality.

MY DEAR MR. COCKSHUTT.

Your Oil is the best I have ever used. Clean and bright in burning, no anxiety whatsoever as to the length of time it will burn. We have no heating appliances in our Church, and, although the Oil has been in a frosty place, it has not cost us a moment's anxiety. Better Oil no one could wish for.

Yours truly,

A PERSONAL NOTE.

Since the establishment of my business in 1845 it has been one of constant expansion, and I take this opportunity, in issuing my new Price List, to thank all those who have contributed to its success. The splendid reputation associated with my firm is a sufficient guarantee that not only is every attention given to the smallest enquiry, but complete satisfaction in every transaction.

Every requisite for the service and decoration of a Church can be obtained at a price which compares very favourably with that of other firms, whilst the quality can always be relied upon.

My altar candles, for example, are used all over the world, and as in the case of most articles of Church furniture, they are made on my own premises, thereby securing that personal attention and supervision so essential to turning out good work with best quality materials at a moderate price.

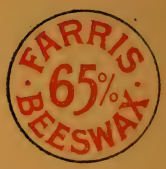
An order by post receives the same consideration as if you personally called and made your own selection.

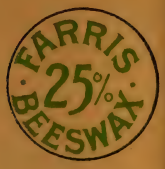
I am,

Yours faithfully,

Charles Farris

Farris's Altar Candles.





CHARLES FARRIS'S Bees' Wax Candles are stamped on the base the guaranteed percentage mark in colours, viz.: 65 % Red —25 % Green, this will be found of great convenience to Sacris and others who have the handling of the Candles, as by this arrangement, sh perchance the stamping become not easily discernible, the percentage can be determi by the colour; each packet of Candles is also wrapped in R or Green paper according to the percentage, enabling you to immediately your stock at a glance.
